John W. Weeks Dies in Summer Home

NEURALGIA OF HEART HELD DEATH CAUSE

Former Member of Cabinet Lapses Into Coma Saturday and Fails to Recover

QUIT OFFICE IN 1925 Secretary Forced to Give Up Place with Coolidge On Account of Illness

LANCASTER, N. H., July 12.—Former Secretary of War John W. Weeks died at his summer home near here, at 3 a. m. today.

He did not recover from the coma into which he had fallen last Saturday, his son, Sinclair Weeks, said, in making the announcement.

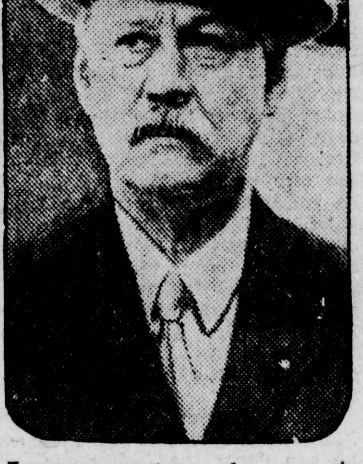

A late statement issued from the summer home diagnosed the former secretary's illness as "neuralgia of the heart," in addition to heart condition.

Dr. R. E. Wilbur, of Whitefield, announced that angina pectoris (neuralgia of the heart) was the actual cause of death.

Resigns in October After recovering from his operation at the Boston hospital, in May, 1925, Weeks spent the summer in West Gloucester, Mass. He went to Washington the following October, when his resignation as secretary of war was announced. Last winter, with Mrs. Weeks, he made a trip to South America.

Weeks arrived at his summer home here last month, hoping that the change of climate might restore his fast failing health.

NEW HUNT FOR FORMER RADIO MAN IS BEGUN

JOHN W. WEEKS

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—Unless Kenneth G. Ormiston is found and served with a summons, the grand jury investigation of the Aimee Semple McPherson kidnapping mystery will probably be concluded tomorrow, according to District Attorney Asa Keyes.

Ormiston is found, a special session of the grand jury will be held to hear his testimony, the district attorney said.

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—The hunt for Kenneth G. Ormiston, missing grand jury witness in the Aimee Semple McPherson kidnapping mystery, was pushed with renewed vigor today as reports of the radio man had been seen in various parts of the state.

Hotel employees at Riverside reported a man believed to have been Ormiston had made inquiries there for "Mrs. McPherson" a week or 10 seen in San Francisco and in an automobile headed for the Mexican border.

At Riverside, the man identified as Ormiston asked the hotel clerk if "Mrs. McPherson" had registered yet, investigators learned. He made a second inquiry several days later, it was said.

Subsequently, it was reported, the radio man had been seen speeding toward the Mexican border in an automobile.

Ormiston is wanted as an important witness in the grand jury investigation, which is to be resumed tomorrow. He was not subpoenaed until after Mrs. McPherson had appeared and told her story of kidnapping and captivity in Mexico, indicating the evangelist may have given information linking Ormiston with the case.

Hays Acts to Banish Rum Film Scenes

(By United Press) LOS ANGELES, July 12.—Motion picture makers must show greater respect for the prohibition laws, it was ruled by Will Hays today, in an official "declaration of purpose."

"The movie czar has decreed that there be no drinking scenes in the films hereafter, unless they are positively essential in building up the plot of the story."

"There shall be no pictorialization of liquor, its manufacture, use or effect, which can be construed as being brought in unnecessarily as a type of propaganda," declared Hays.

"The motion picture has a definite duty, still more emphasized at the present, of not allowing itself to be misused in any situation."

"The screen shall not be used in a manner which promotes the slightest disrespect for any law."

90 Rail Strikers Are Back at Work NEW YORK, July 12.—The Interborough Rapid Transit company today announced that 90 striking motormen and switchmen had returned to work since last night, following the company's ultimatum that men must be back on their jobs by noon or forfeit seniority by replacement by the non-union men who have taken their posts.

Police Inspector Thomas Cummings, after an investigation of an announcement by the transit company that shots had been fired at trains today, said that the report that there had been shooting at a subway station in the Bronx resulted from the explosion of signal torpedoes on the tracks.

This afternoon the company announced it would extend until noon tomorrow, the time limit for the men to return to work. This extension, it was stated, came after a request for more time had been made through the brotherhood of I. R. T. employees.

Huge Munitions Stores of Government Ignited; Loss Totals 85 Millions

DOVER, N. J., July 12.—Fire started in another magazine at the Lake Denmark arsenal this afternoon, after it had been believed there was no danger of further destruction, Rear Admiral Plunkett informed newspapermen.

He said that there are 20 new magazines at the arsenal, a survey had shown. They contain shells, most of which, he said, are loaded. The exact danger from the new fire could not be determined.

(By United Press) DOVER, N. J., July 12.—Amid scenes which recalled those of the European war zone, the army, navy and marine corps today started work of bringing order out of chaos of Saturday's explosion, which wrecked the Lake Denmark naval arsenal.

After 200 marines and soldiers had worked for two hours, exploring parts of the arsenal's ruins, their reports and reports from hospitals and relief agencies indicated the death list would exceed 20, while 23 were still officially listed as missing.

39 names and several scores of others were known to have been treated for minor injuries and their names not secured. Sixty-four of the injured still were in hospitals this afternoon.

19 Known to Be Dead The known dead, whose bodies had been recovered, totaled 19 at 2 p. m. today.

ROBERT SCOTT CONFESSES TO MURDER OF DRUG CLERK

Brother Admits Crime for Which Russell Awaits Gallows Death

(By United Press) CHICAGO, July 12.—A plea of guilty to the murder of Joseph Maurer, Chicago drug clerk, for which his brother, Russell Scott, now is awaiting execution on the gallows, was entered here today by Robert Scott, in criminal court.

After the plea was made for Scott by William Scott, Stewart, his attorney, Scott told Judge William M. Gemmill that he was aware he could be sentenced to either death or life imprisonment.

Scott's plea imposed a great responsibility on the court, Judge Gemmill said, and before sentence is passed he will hear all the evidence in the case. States' attorneys said they would demand the death penalty.

COOLIDGE TOLD OF PARLEY COLLAPSE SUMMER WHITE HOUSE, WHITE PINE CAMP, N. Y., July 12.—President Coolidge has received a memorandum from Secretary of State Kellogg advising him that the Geneva preparatory arms conference, as far as the United States and Great Britain are concerned, has collapsed.

The memorandum was contained in one of the first parcels of papers to reach the president from the state department.

It declared that Kellogg had been informed by the American delegates that further negotiations were hopeless. While American and British delegates seemed to be of the same accord, the French delegates were so far apart in sentiment that no amount of diplomatic treatment could heal the breach, the memorandum stated.

The president hesitates to form any decision until he has been advised of all the facts in the matter by Minister Gibson, head of the American delegation, it was said in Mr. Coolidge's behalf.

OWNER OF 'AIMEE SHOW' ARRESTED LOS ANGELES, July 12.—Joseph Rose, downtown showman, was arrested today on charges of violating four city ordinances by capitalizing on the mysterious disappearance and reappearance of Aimee Semple McPherson.

GUNMEN SLAY 3 IN CHICAGO; SUSPECT TAKEN

(By United Press) CHICAGO, July 12.—Gunmen claimed three more lives in Chicago's west side "bad lands" early today, and one of the gunmen, Thomas McWain of Muskegon, Mich., has confessed his part in the killings.

McWain was arrested on suspicion as he drove an automobile away from the scene of the shootings. He was alone at the time, but said his companion, whom he knew only as "Eddie," and whom he had met only recently, did the shooting.

According to McWain's explanation of the killings, he said "Eddie" held up Ludwig Rose, a taxicab chauffeur, shot him to death and drove away in his automobile, then came upon Miss Marie Blang, 23, and her fiancé, Fred Hein, 25, who were sitting in Hein's automobile in front of the girl's home.

In attempting to rob the couple, Hein's resistance angered them and "Eddie" shot down both of them. Authorities are holding McWain on his confession and are looking for "Eddie."

Chester Rowell Comes Out Strong for Young

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—(Special to the Register)—Reminiscent of the militant days of the "Fresno Republican," when political prophets awaited the editorial announcements of Chester H. Rowell before issuing prophecies concerning the outcome of a state election, the world observer and internationally known editor paused long enough on a round-the-world trip to voice his approval of the candidacy of Lt. Gov. C. C. Young for the Republican nomination for governor.

Mr. Rowell yesterday wired the following statement to former Senator William J. Carr, following his arrival in San Francisco from a stay of several months in Honolulu and the Orient:

"As you know, I am just leaving for Europe and will therefore be out of touch with California affairs. However, I do not want to go without first expressing to you my best wishes for the success of the campaign for the nomination of Lt. Gov. C. C. Young, as Republican candidate for governor of California."

But facts remain a fact, whether pride accepts them or not. And the fact is that neither in power nor in advancement does Spain now qualify in the rank of the great powers of Europe. Especially in an organization like the League of Nations, one of whose primary purposes is to co-operate against war, the nations most important to have in its inner circle are those which could be most dangerous out of it. Spain is not one of these.

Neither is Spain now a first-class nation measured by the modern standards of peace—by business and industry; by contributions to science, inventions and literature; or by the general enlightenment and prosperity of its people, in education and way of living. It is first-class in its history, in its dignity, and in the quality of its finest individuals. So are Greece and Persia. But the fact that the great powers of Europe are ready, if necessary, to jettison Spain in order to retain Germany, sufficiently indicates Spain's present rank.

SPAIN and Brazil may be the price Europe pays for Germany. But really, they are the forfeit European diplomacy is paying for its own short-sighted trickery. The case was just as clear in March as it will be in September, and the only thing to do then was what is going to be done at any cost now. If diplomats could have resisted the temptation to intrigue. But when France tried to double-cross Germany by cheating it out of its half of the bargain of Locarno, France started a game which everybody else promptly proceeded to play. The result was, of course, that everybody lost, and now the thing that could have been done as simply then, at the price of nothing but common honesty, must be done with risk and complication, at nobody knows how great a cost.

BUT let us not delude ourselves that Europe has the monopoly of short-sighted diplomacy. There are indications that America is drifting toward an equally expensive blunder. In order to confirm and justify our policy of keeping out of the League of Nations, we are encouraging Europe to use that League as a more as a specifically European organization. If the world consisted only of Europe and America, as it did in Washington's time, this might be good policy. But if now under American encouragement, the League shrinks into a European alliance, while we trust to the Monroe doctrine for a League of the Americas, there will still remain Asia and Pan-Islam to develop their own league or the leagues, but we can not keep out of living in a one-leagued, a many-leagued or a leagueless world.

A LEAGUELESS world now means chaos, which would spoil our business first and disturb our peace later. A many-leagued world means trouble, which would involve us from the Asiatic side, if not from the European side. The only world in which we can do business and keep the peace is a one-leagued world. We may stay selfishly out of the league, leaving to others the responsibility of maintaining the stability and solvency of our customers and the good behavior of our potential enemies; but, as we value our peace and prosperity, we must not encourage Asia and Pan-Islam to do so. This is what we shall be doing, if we acquiesce too willingly in the shrinking of the league of Nations into a European alliance.

THE California commission on criminal procedure and the association of district attorneys are considering the proposal of three radical changes in our criminal trials: first, to permit the judge to comment on the evidence; second, to permit attorneys to comment on the defendant to testify; and, third, to permit waiver of a jury trial by consent of both sides.

It will doubtless take a considerable campaign of education to get even these reforms accepted, and habits of thought die hard, even in the face of new facts. So this is far enough to try now.

BUT before the job is really finished, we shall have to find also a fourth reform. That is a responsible and just substitute for the present illegal, irresponsible and unjust "third degree." Everywhere except in criminal courts, the first step is to question the accused himself. Every teacher, every military officer, every teacher, every parent, even every juvenile court judge, does this. Being the natural procedure, though prohibited by artificial law, we do it in criminal investigations, too. But we do it secretly, illegally, and often brutally. It should be done, as it is under the law, by a responsible judicial officer, assigned to that function, with the just rights of the defendant fully protected. But among those rights is not the right to have his crime remain undiscovered, if he committed it.

WORLD RACERS ON WAY BY AIRPLANE

EIGHT DROWNED ON WEST COAST OVER WEEK END

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—
Tragedy, partly routed from the roads and highways by increased caution of motorists, vented its energy on the beach bathing resorts in the week-end just passed.

While only six persons lost their lives in auto mishaps in Oregon, Washington and California, eight were drowned, and a ninth died with a broken neck suffered by diving into shallow water.

It was the first week-end of the year in which drownings outnumbered auto deaths.

Of the three other persons killed, one died from injuries received in falling, one was struck by a railway crane and a third, a 10-year-old boy, was accidentally shot by his 13-year-old brother.

Three of Family Drown
Nat W. Washington, prosecuting attorney of Ephrata, Wn., and his brother, James, and sister, Peach, drowned together on a Saturday pleasure trip. They were descendants of George Washington.

In one of the strangest of the auto casualties, Otto Lindeau, a retired business man, of Santa Rosa, Calif., dropped dead from excitement after his car had been struck by another. Stopping over to gather some spilled oranges from the street, he toppled over with a heart attack and was dead
when picked up.

About 400 injuries were reported, the majority of them from automobile mishaps and of minor character. The death toll as reported to the United Press:

drowned in Vashon Island lake.
Tom Somers, 47, fell from ladder in sawmill.

suffered broken neck when he dived in three feet of water.

dentally shot by brother, John, 13.

kidnaping story. Both he and Miss Shinn were to appear before the grand jury tomorrow.

President Ernesto Boubion, of Agua Prieta, and Chief of Police Villa, of the Mexican village, and Chief of Police Percy Bowden, of Douglas, also were expected to appear before the grand jury some time during the week.

President Boubion's testimony is expected to provide a sensation. He claims to have evidence that Mrs.
McPherson was taken in an automobile to within a few miles of Agua Prieta, from where she proceeded afoot to the village to summon aid.

CHURCH IS SPLIT
ON McPHERSONISM

SANTA CRUZ, Calif., July 12.—
Where one Baptist church stood here before, two will stand ere long, it was indicated today.

One will be built on the "Four Square Gospel" of Aimee Semple McPherson and the other won't recognize either the "Four Square" or its advocates.

The disrupting crack widened and split asunder the First Baptist church, of Santa Cruz, yesterday.
Beginning with the resignation
some days ago of the Rev. J. N.
Hoover, adherents of the "Four Square" doctrine, the separation became complete Sunday, when 66 members walked over to Howe's hall to hold "Four Square" services of their own.

The Rev. Mr. Hoover, reported to be preparing for an evangelistic tour, did not preach for them. They obtained the Rev. Goven Holbs, an interdenominational evangelist.

The Rev. J. C. Colyear, representing the local faction of the church, described the split as a direct result of attempts by the resigned pastor to force "Four Square Gospel" teachings on the congregation. Many members of other churches were attracted, he said.

The jubilation of these and other converts often made it difficult to hear what the pastor was saying,
he declared.

The resigning members, in a formal statement, stressed their belief in the integrity of the Rev. Mr.
Hoover and his teachings, as inspired by the Word of God.

The loyal members also issued a formal statement in which they declared strict adherence to fundamental interpretation of the Bible.

off by a vagrant bolt of lightning flashing into one of the immense magazines, exploded almost continuously from late Saturday afternoon until after daybreak today.

The Stars and Stripes kept a silent watch over the undetermined number of dead and injured within the zone of danger.

The flag waves unscathed from its mast in the center of the parade grounds. Below it is a terrain as waste-swept as any of the devastated regions of the war zone.

Where 36 hours ago stood 200 buildings of the navy department—quarters for officers and men and magazines of powder and storage houses of giant shells—there remain but embers stirred spasmodically by some new blast of powder or the touching off of a projectile.

Loss Is $5 Millions

The damage, result of a single bolt of lightning, has been officially estimated at $5,000,000—$50,000,000 to the Lake Denmark section and $5,000,000 to the Pictatiny army arsenal, which lies half a mile across a valley over which burning brands were carried by a high wind.

According to the official communique, three of the missing are officers. Their fellow officers felt that they were among the dead.

These three are Lieutenant Commander E. A. Brown, of the medical corps; Capt. Burwell Clark, executive officer of the naval depot, and
Lt. Schrader of the marines.

Lt. George Bottis Jr., of Richmond, Va., was repairing his automobile in a building on the army reservation when the first of the long series of reverberations rolled up the valley. He was killed when the building caved in. His body was recovered after heroic work.

Expect to Find More Dead

In the area where powder, bombs and shells have been ripping ghastly craters in the earth, transforming the landscape into a waste of desolation and dealing damage for a radius of 10 miles, there are certain to be found bodies of several service men, the commanding officer said.

There were something over 100 men, women and children in the naval area when the bolt of lightning flashed into one of the houses storing inert death charges.

With the shell barrage quieting, inhabitants of the village of Mount Hope returned to their homes today and began reconstruction work. The town had been wrecked by concussion at the first great explosion and windows were broken while rooms were littered with fallen plaster.

Similar reconstruction scenes were enacted as people returned to their homes in other hamlets near the scene of the explosion.

NAVY DEPARTMENT
TO MAKE SURVEY

WASHINGTON, July 12.—A navy
"survey" was under way today at Dover, N. J., to determine to what extent an "act of God" was responsible for the tragedy of the munitions depot explosion there, and to what degree human fallibility entered into it.

Secretary of the Navy Wilbur left Newport, R. I., last night by destroyer and was scheduled to arrive in New York this evening. He

EXCITING AUTO CHASE ENDS IN BOYS' ARRESTS

One youth is in the county jail, serving the first day of a 15-day jail sentence, and another has a ticket charging speeding and reckless driving, following what officers termed a "wild dash" on the coast highway, between Huntington Beach and Newport Beach, early Saturday night.

The boy in jail is Bill Pigg, of Glendale, who, when he was brought before Justice Morrison today, said he guessed he "was making 60 miles an hour," and that he knew he would hear from his father, when the latter learned of his fate.

Couldn't Identify Self

Pigg was jailed by Officer C.
J. Cain, when he was unable to show an operator's license or any means of identification, it was said.

Arthur Leddy, Los Angeles
youth, holds a speed ticket, charging 60 miles an hour and reckless driving, given him by Earl Parker, Huntington Beach traffic officer.

According to Cain, Parker caught Pigg and Leddy speeding toward Newport Beach, while in the city of Huntington Beach. He gave chase and caught the youths outside of the city. One of the cars stopped 100 feet further down the road than the other.

Parker went to the one furthest away. In the meantime, the car in the rear, driven by Leddy, was wheeled about and driven away in the opposite direction, it was said.

Parker instructed Pigg to follow him and he would see him after he ran down the Leddy car. The Leddy machine was overtaken and Leddy given his ticket, but when Parker returned to find Pigg, Pigg was not in sight.

Stopped by State Officers

In getting away from Parker, however, Pigg drove by Cain and F. G. Yoder, state officers, who stopped him, and charged him with speeding 60 miles an hour.

A reckless driving charge was added because of the fact that the car was driven over a bridge at the alleged excessive speed.

Because the youth could not identify himself, he was taken to the Huntington Beach jail and later brought to the Orange county jail.

Asked why he was in such a hurry, Pigg declared that he had a "date" in Balboa for Saturday night and he was late, officers said. A companion riding with Pigg, "kept" the date, Pigg said in court.

Today, Pigg is endeavoring to communicate with his father, who is a contractor in Glendale, it was said.

planned to motor to Dover later,
the navy department announced.

Proceeding with its plans of investigating the disaster, the navy today recalled Rear Adm. C. C.
Block, of ordinance, who was on leave, and ordered him to the disaster scene to take charge of the investigation.

Altitude Flight Thrilling Event

Nearly 2000 persons witnessed the aviation exhibition yesterday afternoon at Eddie Martin's airport, South Main street and Newport road. ## VAGRANT NEAR TALKS HIMSELF 'OUT' OF JAIL

There is such a thing as talking yourself into jail, but the exact opposite was seen today in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court, when John Tie was brought in, charged with vagrancy.

John seemed a little too eager to spend a few days behind the county bastille's bars and, for that reason, Judge Morrison is not so sure whether he will get a jail sentence or not.

"Now listen, Judge, don't let a little thing like 15 or 30 days worry you any," Tie said, when Judge Morrison frankly admitted that he did not know what to do with the man. "Oh, it's all right, I don't mind doing a few days in the county jail," he added.

"You like it over there?" the judge asked.

"It's all right," Tie answered. Tie was picked up by Ed McClellan, chief criminal deputy sheriff, yesterday, near the Orange county hospital. He seemed hungry and needed a bath, McClellan told the court, and that was the reason he brought him in. He didn't have a job either, the officer said.

Tie said that he had been working. In fact, he said, there is nothing he likes better than work.

"Judge, I wouldn't mind working on the chain gang awhile. I like work better than anything, so don't let a little thing like 15 or 30 days bother you any," the man repeated. Morrison will investigate the man's case to determine just how much work he has done around Santa Ana, recently, and after that he will notify Tie as to whether he gets a free bed and meals.

Country Club Juniors Have Merry Party

UCH a happy time the junior members of Santa Ana Country club experienced late last week, when they were entertained at a patriotic dance in celebration of the Glorious Fourth.

Red, white and blue lights were used in the ball-room together with other colorful decorations in keeping with the holiday. Chapman's orchestra furnished the most entrancing music to which the light-hearted young people danced the evening hours away. In the intervals of dancing, they found refreshment in the lead punch which was on flow throughout the evening.

An unusual feature was the character song and dance given by George Washington Brown, member of the serving staff at the clubhouse, who danced the Charleston in extremely talented fashion and delighted with his ability as a vocalist.

At 10:30 the music lapsed for a period during which ice cream, cake, nuts and candy were enjoyed by the merry-makers. Included in the list of young people enjoying the event, were Marion Crookshank, Louise Brownridge, Mildred Daley, Caroline Ferry, Eugenia Gilbert, Geraldine Gilbert, Lucy Holmes, Marion Proctor, Dorothy Proctor, Louise Proctor, Sherrill Spurgeon, Helen Slabaugh, Ann Hilton, P. ## Use Milk in Cooking

Cream Sauce
1 cup milk, 2 tablespoons flour, 2 tablespoons butter, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-3 teaspoon pepper.
Melt the butter, stir in the flour and seasoning, add milk gradually and stir to avoid lumps. Use a double boiler, if possible. Cook 15-20 minutes to improve the flavor.

Cream of Spanish Soup
Pick over spinach and cut off the roots. Wash carefully to remove all grit. Shake each handful of spinach as it is removed from the last water. Do not add water. Cook in a large kettle with tightly fitted cover. Stir to prevent burning. Cook 10 minutes and remove from fire immediately. Cut finely with two knives. Add this finely cut spinach and liquid to cream sauce. Allow 1 cup of cooked spinach to 2 cups cream sauce. Season and serve hot.

Do not allow sauce to thicken too much when using it for soup. This makes a rather thick soup; may be thinned with milk if desired. This recipe makes 4 cups of soup. For other vegetable purees that are thick use 2 cups of milk in making the stock sauce and use the same proportion as given above.

Cream of Asparagus Soup
Wash each stalk of asparagus carefully with a vegetable brush to remove all grit. Then cut in small pieces (using all but the very tough parts), cook, covered, until the asparagus is tender, in enough water to cover. Add salt to taste just before the asparagus is done. Allow 3 cups cooked asparagus and cooking water to 2 cups cream sauce. Season and serve hot.

The less tender parts may be cooked longer and put through a sieve. If desired the tops may be used for salad.

Marseilles Souffle
Use cream sauce base with an additional tablespoon of butter and one of flour, as follows:
1 cup milk, 3 tablespoons flour, 3 eggs, 3 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper.
Make a thick cream sauce, by melting butter, add flour, seasoning stir until smooth. Add milk; when it begins to thicken, the yolk of eggs. Cook until it thickens to the consistency of a stiff batter. Add material for souffle (either 1 cup chopped up vegetables such as spinach or peas, cold meat such as chicken or ham, or anything of that kind). Then fold in the whites of the eggs beaten stiff and dry.

If the souffle is to be made with cheese add 1 cup ground yellow cheese just before the cream sauce is taken off the fire.

To bake, select a pan large enough for the pan in which the souffle is to be cooked to set in so that the water will come up all around it. Place in the bottom of pan about six folds of newspaper. Set the pan with the souffle in it on the newspaper and fill with water until it comes up about one-third around the edge of the dish. Cook in a moderately hot oven 20 minutes—except for spinach, which being watery requires a little longer. This method insures the hardening of the center of the souffle without burning the edges and if properly followed the souffle will not fall.

Corn Trieste
2 cups corn (cooked and cut off the ear), 2 tablespoons green pepper finely chopped, 2 tpsns red pepper finely chopped, 1-4 tsp. finely chopped onion, 1 cup cream sauce. Mix ingredients, place in baking dish. Cover with butter and bread crumbs and bake until brown.

Orange Custard
Arrange slices of sweet oranges in dish. Pour over them boiled custard. Chill and serve cold.

CONSTRUCTION OF BUS DEPOT TO START SOON

Construction of a one-story brick building on the north side of Third street, near Spurgeon street, on property recently acquired by the Pickwick Stages, Inc., for the erection of a new depot, probably will begin this week, provided minor changes in plans can be worked out, it was learned today.

The building is to cover the vacant lot back of the Meyer hotel, which lot is 55 feet wide and 120 feet deep. The roof is to be supported by steel spans, eliminating all interior posts or supports. The rooms at the corner of Spurgeon and Third street will be used as a ticket office and waiting room and the new building will be devoted entirely to garage and storage purposes for the company's fleet of motor busses.

The contract will, in all probability, be given to Sydney J. Babcock, it was said. The officials of the stage company are going over the final plans in Los Angeles and word to go ahead with construction is expected soon. The expenditure is to be larger than was at first anticipated, according to reports, but an accurate estimate of the total amount to be spent could not be secured.

PARENTS ASKED TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Parents of school children will have an opportunity of discussing problems of county educational work at the conference to be held tomorrow in the office of R. P. Mitchell, county superintendent of schools, in the Hall of Records.

The session will be the second held under plans worked out by Mrs. J. V. Kelsey, president of the Orange County Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Parents may come for conference at any time between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., Mrs. Kelsey said.

Individual problems, as well as the broad work of the P.-T. A., will be considered. Vice presidents of the association will be in charge. At the first conference, held last week, parents registered for consultations.

GRANDMOTHER WINS CUSTODY OF CHILD

The superior court has decided that Luz Portillo, Mexican child, shall continue to live with her grandmother, Ysabel Gaittan, in the Mexican settlement at Garden Grove road and West Seventeenth street.

So deciding, the court today denied the petition of Joe Portillo, of Santa Barbara, father of the child, who wanted custody of Luz and tried to get it through a writ of habeas corpus. The court action was taken when his personal efforts were defeated. The child's mother died recently, having separated from the father.

Father and grandmother came before Judge H. G. Ames, who heard the rival claims and came to the conclusion that the grandmother could provide the best home for Luz.

Warns of Brief Time for Registration

Registration for the primary election August 31 will close July 31, according to County Clerk J. M. Backs, so that only three weeks remain in which voters can qualify to vote at the coming election.

According to Backs, the number of voters who have not registered for the primary is surprising. The law states that, in order to vote, an elector must be registered at least 30 days prior to an election. The registration for the general election on November 2 will close October 2. During the period between the close of registration and the election, the registrar of voters compiles the great register and attends to the multitude of duties attendant upon an election. Persons who have registered since Jan. 1, 1926, and have not moved from their precinct can vote at the coming election; if they have moved they can vote by getting a transfer to show them to be residents of their new precinct, Backs explained.

POSSESSION OF LIQUOR PROVES GREAT EXPENSE

Charged with possession of intoxicating liquor, following the finding of 12 dozen bottles of alleged beer and a dozen bottles of alleged wine in his home, two miles south of Westminster, Robert Van Conkleberg, 35, pleaded guilty before Justice Kenneth Morrison today and was fined $500, with an alternate of spending as many days in jail.

When asked what his plea would be, Conkleberg smiled and declared that he "guessed it would be guilty." Then he is said to have told the judge that he was guilty of manufacturing and sale, too. The court took no advantage of this, however, fining the man on the charge specified.

Conkleberg was arrested by Ed McClellan, chief criminal deputy sheriff, and other deputies, who raided his home yesterday. Information on Conkleberg was received by sheriff's officers from Orange police, following the arrests there, Saturday, of two men, charged with possession of intoxicating liquor.

The man had not paid his fine late today.

Booze Trial Opens In Superior Court

C. Ghysels, of Westminster, went on trial today before a jury in Superior Judge E. J. Marks' court, charged with possession of liquor and a prior conviction of such an offense.

The combination of offenses constitutes a high misdemeanor and brings the case within the province of the superior court for prosecution.

Chief Deputy District Attorney C. N. Mozley was directing the prosecution today. Attorneys Charles D. Swanner and Roland Thompson appearing for the defense.

Sydney is the first city in Australia to reach the million mark in population.

CITY MAY HAVE CAMP ACREAGE IN MOUNTAINS

Subject to the approval of the city board of trustees, the members of which appear to favor the plans, the city of Santa Ana will come into control of 11 acres of cabin land, in Mill Creek canyon, near Mt. San Bernardino, as a summer camp ground for residents of the city, according to City Engineer Nat H. Neff, who has been working for three years to secure the use of the mountain acreage for the city.

The land will be dedicated to the city if the trustees agree to provide funds for the maintenance of the camp and provide a means of policing the grounds, Neff said. Use of the camp would be restricted to residents of the city.

A paved highway leads right by the mountain campground and requires no mountain driving. The big falls of Mill creek are less than a mile away. The elevation is 5800 feet above sea level. The camp is about 75 miles from Santa Ana and can easily be reached in two and a half hours by motor car.

Plans for the maintenance of the camp probably will be submitted soon to the city board. These plans would include the piping of water and the possible election of cabins by the city, for the use of which a small charge would be made to pay the expenses of the camp.

The land is covered with pines, black and white oak and cedars and is part of the San Bernardino National forest. The Mill creek area has but recently been thrown open for the use of the public. Negotiations looking to the establishment of the camp were delayed while mining claim litigation was being settled with the interior department.

The location was visited last Friday by C. H. Chapman, Stanley Goode, Frank Purinton, members of the city board; Neff, city engineer, and V. W. Whitson, president of the Kiwanis club, and all of the men were pleased at the prospect of Santa Ana securing the municipal camp.

Eastern Star Matrons Entertain Officers At Bridge Luncheon

DELIGHTFUL in the extreme was the luncheon and card party enjoyed last Friday by high ranking officers of Orange county Eastern Star chapters who were guests of nine worthy matrons of the county, at Southern Seas club Balboa.

One long table was employed for luncheon and was centered very appropriately by a perfect star, formed of flowers in the varied colors of the famous emblem of the order. The star was designed by Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sloan, in charge of the club, who spared no pains to make the occasion a happy one for their guests. Quite as appropriate were the saucy bathing girls who adorned the place cards, while yellow nut cups added to the attractive appearance of the table.

Greeting was extended the guests by Mrs. Genevieve Lacy, worthy matron of Harmony chapter of this city, and toast-mistress. In response to her calls, clever little talks were given by many of the guests including Mrs. Elsie Buchanan of Fullerton, representing the associate matrons; Mrs. Margaret Conner, Fullerton, representing the conductresses, and Mrs. Anderson, also of Fullerton, for the associate conductresses.

Other interesting talks were offered by Mrs. Caroline Carter, deputy grand matron; Mrs. Carrie Drake, musician of the grand chapter and Mrs. Rachel Robertson, past deputy grand matron.

Following the interval of talks, tables were arranged for court whist in which the attractive prizes were taken by Mrs. Nona Cloyes, scoring high, Mrs. W. R. Sylvester, second and Mrs. McAdam of Huntington Beach, low.

The hostess group was composed of Mrs. Sam Jernigan, matron of Santa Ana chapter; Mrs. Genevieve Lacy, matron of Harmony chapter; Mrs. Dorothy Ross, Orange; Mrs. Ellen Shaw, Buena Park; Mrs. Margaret Titus, and Miss Edna Welton, Fullerton; Mrs. Julia Hillard, Huntington Beach; Mrs. Virginia Turner, Anaheim; and Mrs. Mary Martin, Yorba Linda.

Their guests, comprising associate matrons, conductresses and associate conductresses of the nine chapters, were Mesdames F. H. Cloyes, Jeanette Tarpley, Nellie Sylvester, Anella Prather, Caroline Carter, Santa Ana; Rosalie Williams, Florence Anderson, Elsie Buckman, Hazel Smalley, Rachel Robertson, Fullerton; Esther A. Kemp, Henrietta Hardage, Pearl Kelly, Anaheim; Lella Lebel, Ruth Hunt, Emily Warren, Buena Park; Edith Lee, Jean McAdam, Huntington Beach; Doris W. Smith, Clara Hadley, Freda Garber, Orange; Martha Beaman, Olinda; Clara Holland, Carrie Drake and Carrie Johnson, Yorba Linda.

July Bride-to-be Is Made Honor Guest At Pretty Party

MISS HELEN TANTLINGER, charming fiancée of Rudolph Richards, was made honor guest Saturday night at a delightful party in which Mrs. W. Carrithers and Miss Sara Hilbert showed interest in the betrothal and approaching wedding of the two popular young people.

Guests were greeted at the Carrithers home, 1312 North Garnsey street, where quantities of pink carnations and white marguerites together with pink and white dahlias, offered a lovely decorative scheme.

Bridge tables were in readiness for an exciting contest in which Mrs. Chester Stafford, the former Miss Edith Knox and a bride of but a few weeks, took honors and received a pretty copper incense burner. Consolation gift of an attractive framed photo was awarded another young matron, Mrs. Cassius Paul. In connection with the presentation of the prize awards, the hostess announced that a special guest prize would be awarded Miss Tantlinger and placed before her, an array of fascinating packages which proved to contain such varied gifts as table and household linens, crystal and china.

While the lovely things were being examined, Mrs. Carrithers and Miss Hilbert substituted dainty linens for the card table covers, and centered each table with a pink rose basket of mints, above which were suspended clever little pink and white umbrellas, to emphasize the shower features of the evening. The salad, cheese straws and coffee of the first course were followed by ice and cake.

The hostesses were both friends of long standing of the bride-elect, and many of the guests were her former college mates at Pomona. The marriage of Miss Tantlinger and Mr. Richards will be Sunday, July 18, the date having been announced at a smart evening party given in mid-June by Mrs. Walter Tantlinger, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Joseph Peterson.

Guests at the Saturday night affair included the Misses Helen Randall, Bertha Selway, Mignonette Swales, Frances Egge, Grace Robertson and McNeil, Mesdames Lynn Crawford, Cassius Paul, Joseph Peterson, Harold Finley, A. Thompson, Santa Ana; Mrs. J. W. Isbell, Miss Margarette Peers, Mrs. Otto Thorman, Orange; Miss Dora Fogleson, Miss Frances Kinney, Mesdames Sheldon Russell, Chester Stafford, Floyd Lakey, Jack Kempner, Los Angeles; Miss Ola Blair, Long Beach; Miss Alline Spear, Oxnard.

An Echoing of Wedding Bells Which Rang Fifty Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Huntington, Orange county pioneers, who yesterday celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lester W. Slaback, 418 West Pine street.

The faint sweet echoes of wedding bells, ringing down the vista of 50 golden years, were heard yesterday in the Lester W. Slaback home, 418 West Pine street, where Mrs. Slaback's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Huntington, were honor guests at a reception celebrating their golden wedding day.

Mr. and Mrs. Slaback were aided in their duties as hosts, by the other children, Mr. and Mrs. Huntington, all but one of whom were present to aid in celebrating the auspicious occasion and greet the hosts of friends who called between 2 o'clock in the afternoon and 8 in the evening.

The home was decked with quantities of flowers, all in tones of yellow, to indicate the golden anniversary. Many friends had evidenced their interest by sending great baskets of bloom, all of which added to the charm of the scene. In the living room, an archway of ferns and golden dahlias were arranged and there Mr. and Mrs. Huntington held court and greeted their friends. Mrs. Huntington, crowned with snowy hair in place of the snowy orange blossoms of 50 years ago, was quite as lovely in her serene old age, as she must have been as a girlish bride on that wedding day on the Kansas frontier. She wore a soft grey silk and a corsage of golden pom-pom dahlias.

Guests who called during the afternoon and evening were regaled with iced fruit punch and individual cakes, iced in yellow. Phonograph music offered entertainment, and as a special feature, Freda Moeser, Barker gave several appropriate songs, including "I Love You Truly," "Mother," and others, all sung to her own accompaniment.

Not only were Mr. and Mrs. Huntington showered with floral offerings and attractive cards, but there were many appropriate gifts, especially of gold pieces. One basket of yellow daisies presented by their children, proved to have gold piece centers. Gifts of gold pieces were also received from the W.R.C., the Fraternal Brotherhood, (which also sent a pretty gold dish), the neighbors near the Huntington home at 909 South Main street, and a basket of flowers and a gold piece from the Chat 'N' Sea club of which Mrs. Walter Gerkin (Alice Huntington) is a member.

The only happening to mar the pleasure of the day was the failure of one son and his family to be present. Leo M. Huntington and their young people, Eugene and Miss Dorothy, of Lancaster, were prevented at the last moment from coming but telephoned their greetings yesterday.

The other children of the estimable couple who aided in making the day so happy, were the daughters, Mrs. Lester Slaback; Carl A. Huntington, of Chino; Mrs. Frank Tedford, Mrs. Raymond Ross, both of Santa Ana; Mrs. Mont Jackson, Fullerton; and Mrs. Walter Gerkin, of Santa Ana. The grandchildren, in addition to the two of Lancaster, were Harold Huntington, of Chino; the Misses Edith and Dorothy Tedford; Donald, Leland and Etta Marie Jackson; Leell, Stanley and Lela Ellen Slaback, and Raymond Ross Jr.

Mr. Huntington was born in Illinois and his wife in Ohio. Both coming from pioneer families which followed the frontier, they traveled over westward. They saw Iowa when it was all prairie land, open for settlement. They saw Kansas when it too was wild and unsettled. There the young man homesteaded and there he met the pretty daughter of a homesteading neighbor.

There was romance in that friendship. It is a charming story as Mr. Huntington tells it—a story of a party at a sod cabin, a missing photograph, a demand that either the photograph or its new owner, be returned, and the final event, the marriage of that new owner, pretty Hannah Chubb, and the subject of the photograph, the teller of the tale.

Years have not dimmed either Mrs. Huntington's charm or her husband's sense of humor. In proof of the first statement, is the picture accompanying this story. In proof of the latter, Mr. Huntington can manage to find a subject for a joke in the fact that he broke and misplaced several vertebrae in his back in a bad fall half a dozen years ago. When a Register reporter called the house, and in hushed accents, said they were holding the story of the accident until they had the details of the funeral arrangements, he was told to wait.

They are a delightful couple, Mr. and Mrs. Huntington, and all their friends rejoice with them in their 50 splendid years of happiness, 41 of which have been spent in Santa Ana (22 in the same house, their present home) and all wish for them, many more happy years together, with other celebrations as happy as that of yesterday.

Among pleasant affairs of the end of the week at the Southern Seas club, Balboa, was a luncheon and card party given by Mrs. J. J. Dwyer of Anaheim for members of the Anaheim Euchre club, of which she is an active member.

Club rooms were bright with flowers and the tables were beautifully decorated with sweet peas and quantities of gorgeous dahlias from the prize gardens of the club manager, C. M. Sloan. These showed the artistic touch in arrangement of Mrs. Sloan who did all the decorating.

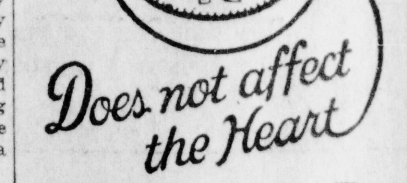

Luncheon was served in true Southern Seas club style, and was followed by the club's favorite diversion, a series of euchre games in which first prize fell to the lot of Mrs. E. Boychert; second to Mrs. George Hamler and third to Mrs. J. Bradley.

Mrs. Dwyer's guests included Mesdames J. Strodtloff, Nellie Wagner, James Carroll, William Doland, George Hamler, J. Nebe-lung, M. J. Bradley, W. J. Cole, Arthur Lewis, F. James, Louisa Backs, Natalie Rumpman, E. Boychert, James Smythe, P. Bengammon, C. F. Grim, J. S. Sheridan, G. W. Sandilands.

Young Married People Hold Beach Party

The Young Married People's class of the United Presbyterian Sunday school enjoyed an excursion to Huntington Beach last Friday evening and organized a party on the sands.

Toasted hot dogs, with all trimmings, coffee and watermelon, southern style, divided attention with games on the beach. Music was furnished by the breakers. One unruly wave broke out of the orchestra pit and managed to dampen the party, but not its fun. Reports state that the sad sea waves forgot their sorrow before the party was done.

Bridge Party Yields Shower Gift for Popular Girl

BRIDE of early spring, Mrs. Eugene Thomas, formerly Miss Irene Stewart, was hostess Friday evening, at a charming party complimenting a bride-to-be of the summer, Miss Ada Tulene who is soon to marry Royden Oxmun.

Pink and white dahlias added their graceful beauty to the scene as the evening passed in the playing of bridge. Attractive awards were received by Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Asa Hoffman and Mrs. Boynton.

When tables were prepared for the dainty refreshments the pink and white color scheme was further carried out in the pretty baskets in the centers of the tables and the smaller individual nut cups.

At the end of the evening Miss Tulene was called out of the room for several minutes. On returning she found to her surprise, a huge clothes-basket laden with appropriate gifts for the kitchen of her new home.

Guests for the evening were Miss Ada Tulene, Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. A. C. Tulene, Mrs. E. Tulene, Miss Dorothy Lee, Miss Helen Heesch and Miss Gertrude Heesch of Long Beach, Miss Agnes Shambaugh, Miss Gertrude Probst, Miss Gladys Thomas, Mrs. Boynton, Mrs. Asa Hoffman and Mrs. L. J. Heffner of Anaheim.

Mrs. McPeak accompanied the class, as did its teacher, W. W. Hoy, and Mrs. Hoy. Others present included Mr. and Mrs. John Board, guests of the class, and the following members: Messrs. and Mesdames Eby, Simons, Robert Day, Harold Finley, W. L. Finley, Leslie Eckel, Woodward and Ralph Raltt.

PAINT MEN TO HOLD SESSION ON WEDNESDAY

The Master Painters' association of Orange County, organized June 8, will meet Wednesday, at 7:30 p. m., in the Shields paint store, 610 West Fourth street, it was announced today by Walter F. Sorensen, president.

Sorensen said that invitations to of the painting contractors of the county and that a cordial welcome would be extended those who may not have received invitations because of the association not having all the names and addresses, of contractors. Matters of importance and interest to the craft will come up for discussion, he added.

"The chapter is affiliated with the Master Painters and Decorators' association of California, and the International Association of Master Painters and Decorators of the United States and Canada, which organizations have a total of more than 2500 members with all the leading paint manufacturers as associate members," Sorensen said.

"The association has not been organized for selfish purposes, but rather to work out ways and means by which the property owner may get what he pays for and to eliminate the fly-by-night contractors, who have preyed on the meeting had been sent to most Southern California, the last few years by taking jobs below cost, using adulterated materials and heating material bills. In too many instances, the dealer supplying material to this type of contractor has been forced to file liens against property in order to protect himself and the owner has suffered by having to pay twice, with the result that the work cost him more than it would have had he let the contract to a reliable one. There also have been instances where journeymen employed have not received wages justly earned."

Charles F. Mitchell is vice president and H. J. Roberts is secretary and treasurer of the county organization.

PAIR ARRESTED ON CHARGES OF WILD DRIVING

Charged with violation of parole, Earl Waffle, 18, Villa Park youth, was lodged in the county jail early Sunday after he had been arrested by Officer C. J. Cain, in Newport Beach, on charges of reckless driving and speeding 52 miles an hour within the city limits of the beach city.

Gerald Blakeley, 634 West First street, Santa Ana, also was arrested by Cain at the same time. Blakeley received a ticket charging reckless driving and speeding 40 miles an hour in Newport. The reckless driving charges were added to the arrest slips by Cain, who alleges that the men "switched" drivers while traveling at a high rate of speed.

The driver's license of Waffle was suspended in superior court here several months ago, it was said, and for that reason, he was brought to jail, following his arrest.

Two other motorists, charged with speeding 50 miles an hour or faster were arrested Saturday night by Harry Aldrich, state traffic officer. They were Jack D. Wilde, 400 Rampart boulevard, Los Angeles, arrested on the Irvine boulevard and charged with speeding 50 miles an hour, and Jack L. Dillon, Troy hotel, San Diego, arrested on the Irvine road at 11:15 p. m., Saturday, and charged with speeding 58 miles per hour.

Both are scheduled to appear next Friday before Justice Kenneth Morrison.

Nail in His Pie, Is Awarded $500

NEW YORK, July 12.—Michael Federbush should have been more careful and he would not have swallowed a nail in a piece of pie. That was the contention of a restaurant company, sued by Federbush. But the jury thought different and gave Federbush $500 for having eaten the nail.

400 PRESENT AT OUTING OF K. C. COUNCILS

Approximately 400 men, women and children were present yesterday at the all-day picnic held in Concordia park, Anaheim, under the auspices of the Santa Ana and Anaheim councils of the Knights of Columbus.

Lunch was served at noon and at 5 p. m., fried chicken was served to the group, with W. K. Duffy in charge of preparations of the "eats." The serving was done by members of both councils. An entertainment in Concordia hall completed a day of real pleasure for those who were present.

L. P. Gorman, of La Habra, and William Maas, of Santa Ana, composed the committee in charge of the day's program.

In those events of which records were kept, the following were the winners.

Boat and shoe race—Robert Sellers, Fullerton, and Hilda Ravenkamp, first; Paul Hauptert, Santa Ana, and Olivea Shea, Anaheim, second; Melvin Sellers, Fullerton, and Agnes LaForce, Fullerton, third.

Upsala University Is 450 Years Old

UPSALIA, Sweden, July 12.—Upsalia university, where Crown Prince Gustaf Adolphus was once a student and where his two oldest sons are now enrolled, is now preparing to celebrate next year its 450th anniversary.

Founded in 1477, it is the oldest university in northern Europe, and has been called the cradle of culture in Sweden.

Among the candidates mentioned for the next president is Prof. Osten Ulfsten, former minister of foreign affairs, who last spring attracted world-wide attention by his firm stand at Geneva against an enlargement of the council of the League of Nations.

Road and Fishing Conditions

By the National Automobile Club

General fishing conditions are excellent at the present time in the district near Lone Pine, Inyo county. Since the opening of the golden trout season, most parties have made good catches, whether experts or amateurs. The best bait is salmon eggs and worms; best fly, royal coachman, bee, black gnat, brown and gray usually the best policy. Mt. Whitney, the nation's highest peak, is now open from all sides. Fishing in this mountain area is very fine, due to the fact that it is fairly hard to reach. The 12 lakes in the Cottonwood basin are reached in about five hours' pack from Lone Pine. These lakes supply very large golden trout and limit catches have averaged 13 inches in length. This territory has not been overrun and therefore splendid fishing may be expected.

Following is a report of fishing conditions in the district near Olancha, Inyo county: The trail up Cottonwood creek to Cottonwood lakes is in good shape. The trail over Army pass to Whitney meadows, Rock creek and Rock creek lakes is clear of heavy snow. The weather has been clear and warm in daytime, clear and cool on meadows, keen on passes at night. Everyone who fished at Cottonwood lakes on the opening day of golden trout season caught the limit. Fish in Rock creek and Rock creek lakes will take almost anything you give them.

Bass are biting good in the Big Bear lake district at the present time. Trout are not biting so good just now. Best bait is hellgramite. Motorists to this section using the desert route should travel over same during the early morning hours or late afternoon to avoid the extreme heat.

Detours have been eliminated on the valley boulevard through Alhambra, and a fine, wide boulevard will now be found all the way through Alhambra. This eliminates a great deal of traffic over Monterey pass to Garvey road and El Monte, which was the popular route during the time construction work was in progress in Alhambra.

The widening of the coast route between Camarillo and Ventura from 15 to 20 feet is scheduled for completion by August 1. When this contract is completed, the entire state highway between Hollywood and Ventura will be of uniform width. According to present plans, similar improvements will be completed before the end of the year on the highway between Ventura and Santa Barbara.

Trout fishing in the back country of the San Gabriel mountains is improving. There is very little fishing in the Ventura district, with the exception of the extreme Upper Sespe, and no fishing at Santa Ynez. In San Diego county, trout are biting only fair at Barrett dam; a few trout reported caught at Lake Cuyamaca; good bass fishing at Morena, Lower Otay and Sweetwater lakes.

Capital Letter

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Just before the congressional primaries began a few weeks ago, Representative Henry Allen Cooper of Wisconsin, the oldest member in point of service in Congress, said that congresses of today are liberal as compared with the first one he came to in 1893, but that money's power in politics probably is greater now than ever before in history.

He meant, for instance, Pennsylvania.

He meant Illinois, if Senator Caraway's charges of corruption in the Republican senatorial primary there are made good.

He may have meant other places, too. We shall see, as Senator Jim Reed's slush fund investigation committee goes on with its "probe."

Representative Cooper's account is that we've progressed in the 33 years since he first was a congressman, but what he's afraid is that money will gain control and start us back the way we came.

Liberal legislators, like Cooper, are very much pleased with the Pennsylvania disclosures and with what they look for still to come. They're not pleased with the evidences of crookedness, of course, but their impression is that crooked capital has overdone itself and will have to stay under cover for a long time to come.

There was a Lorimer scandal and a Newberry scandal and they didn't prevent the present ones, but they were individual scandals and only counted as such. This time there's a prospect of a big batch, all at once.

The investigating committee, it's no secret, thinks it's hardly scratched the surface. Senator Reed is authority for the statement that, as fast as it can, the committee's going clear down to the subsoil.

The committee's in luck in that it has a majority hostile to the administration. Such revelations as it has made naturally are no favorable advertisement for the administration in power, and, if it had been an administration committee, it's safe to say it would have hushed things up in short order.

Just how it happened to be an anti-administration committee isn't hard to guess.

It was named by Vice President Charles G. Dawes.

Charles G. Dawes can hardly be called a Coolidge administration man. He has an ambition to have an administration of his own.

This investigation isn't very good for his party, but, regardless of consequences, if he's ever to be a presidential candidate, he must get out of his way, and the present administration unquestionably is one of his obstacles.

So far as Pennsylvania is concerned, William Scott Vane probably will be elected to the Senate next November, but that he'll be seated by the Senate itself is hardly possible to imagine, after the scandal which attended his nomination.

WARNING

Pain is the message conveyed to the brain by the nerves, which are the telephone wires of the body. Any undue pressure upon a nerve caused by injury or inflammation in any part will set these wires going and notify the individuals that something is wrong. These friendly warnings of nature should be heeded. When pain comes, therefore, we should not try to kill it, but to relieve it by removing the cause.

In order to remove the cause of your pain, sickness or disease, we must first find the location of that cause. This is done by taking an X-Ray picture of the bony segments of the spine where the nerves are subject to pressure as they emit through the little openings. These nerves carry all of the nerve force or functional energy received by the heart, lungs, liver, stomach, kidneys, bowels, etc., and by viewing an X-Ray you can see the condition with your own eyes. This assures you that your case is not being guessed at.

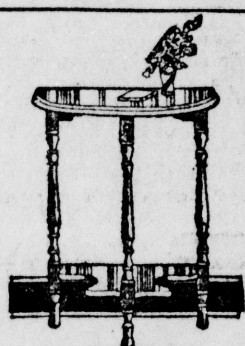

Then with our hands alone we adjust these bony segments into their proper position. In this manner health has been permanently restored to hundreds of people suffering with such conditions as heart palpitation, liver trouble, biliousness, stomach and kidney trouble, chronic constipation and uncomfortable diseases which, if neglected, gradually become worse instead of better.

Chiropractic is not a cure-all, nor do we claim it to be such, but we do know that hundreds of sick people have been restored to health by MARTYN FREE X-RAY CHIROPRACTORS after they had become discouraged and about ready to give up hope.

If you are sick, don't say you have tried everything until you have consulted us about your case. For the next seven days the coupon below will entitle the bearer to a complete spinal examination, and without charge or obligation we will make a standard size X-Ray picture showing the exact cause of your trouble. # OFFICER SEEKS TO RENT HOUSE IN CAPISTRANO, BUT IS BALKED

Not Single Residence to Let Nor Building Lot for Sale
in Mission Town

JOE CLEVER SEES NO SOLUTION NEAR

Former Fullerton Policeman
In Quandary As to Location of His Future Abode

Wanted—a house in which to live.

Orange county residents hear a great deal about prosperity in this or that section, which districts at times seem to vie with one another on the best prosperity yarn, but San Juan Capistrano has the best story, so far as a prosperity story is concerned, that has been heard lately.

Holds Two Offices.

Recently, through the state, the Mission city has obtained the services of a combination police and traffic officer and now that he is on duty there, making it necessary for him to live in the town, in order that he may be able to give service in his two offices at all times, San Juan Capistrano wakes up to the fact that it has no place for him to live.

There is a hotel, yes, but who can afford to live at a hotel on a combination police and traffic officer's pay?

Joe Clever, lately of the Fullerton police force, and recently appointed by the board of supervisors as state officer in San Juan Capistrano, is up against it for a house to live in, and at the same time San Juan Capistrano is up against it to find a place to house its only police officer.

No House For Rent.

This being a fact, Mission city boosters are claiming the best prosperity yarn of the year, which is anything but music to Clever's ears.

"It's the truth, I've searched high and low and there is not a house in the town for rent," Clever said today.

"Why don't you build a home there?" the officer was asked.

"Can't be done. How are you going to build a home if you can't buy the property on which to build the house?" Clever replied.

And that seems to be the case. There are no houses for rent and no property for sale in San Juan Capistrano, that would do for residential purposes, Clever asserted.

Wants "Something to Happen."

At the present time, the officer is staying at the hotel. He considered living in Tustin, but that wouldn't do, he surmised, because it would take him too long to reach San Juan Capistrano in case of emergency.

No, he must live in San Juan Capistrano in order to give the positions call for, so there is nothing to do but stay at the hotel until "something happens" that will provide a house for him.

Send All Color Comics in At Same Time

Don't send in your colored comic pictures in The Register's prize contest before all of the pictures have been printed, then send in all the pictures at one time.

This was the advice today of the Comic Color Contest editor, who wants every boy and girl to have an equal opportunity in final judging and award of the prizes.

RULES

1—Color all of the seven comic sketches (which are appearing one a day) in the Comic Color Contest.

2—Write your name and address on each one.

3—Don't send them in separate—but all at once. And they must be in The Register office by Saturday, July 17.

AWARDS

First prize, $3.00; second prize, $2.00; third prize, $1; and six 50 cent awards.

STYLISH MEN TO WEAR HIGH HEELED SHOES

Latest Model in Footwear Outlined at Exposition
Held Recently in Boston

Blame it on the balloon pants—it looks as though they were responsible.

Santa Ana men will wear French heels this winter, if one can correctly refer to the cloudy effect of the Christmas holidays in California as "winter."

At the New England shoe and leather exposition, in Boston, men's shoes, with two-inch heels, were exhibited, according to information received by Santa Ana boot and shoe merchants. It was an in-men's footwear and that no male can hope to be in style unless he wears them.

No local man was willing to be quoted on the subject, but there is every indication that the balloon pants, that have had such a vogue, are responsible for the French heel idea.

Growing weary of sweeping the sidewalk with their trousers, the men were about to give the balloons the go-by. It is rumored, and something had to be done.

So the clothes makers and the shoe manufacturers got together and, by mutual agreement, decided to lift trouser leg bottoms out of the dirt and at the same time put a new kind of "kick" in the boot of the male.

Whether or not French heels for men become generally popular, they are certain to find immediate favor in the eyes of the cowpunchers. The range rider, including the Hollywood model, has been wearing high heels on his boots for many years and has never been able to feel comfortable in the low-heeled shoes of the city dwellers.

Balloon pants, French heels. What next? Kissing instead of handshaking?

FLOWERS HAVE GREAT APPEAL FOR S. A. MAN

Those who go often to the city library probably have noticed the many beautiful bouquets of flowers, which generally are to be seen on the table near the door.

According to the season of the year, one sees roses, daisies, marigolds, sunflowers, hyacinths, matillija poppies, plumboya, valerian, poinsettia, coxcomb and dahlias.

These bouquets are given the library, that the public may enjoy them, by A. S. Wells, 1135 West First street. According to Wells, his pet phase of gardening is the raising of dahlias. In his garden, he has dozens of varieties of this beautiful plant. Some he has propagated himself and among them are the Calvin Coolidge, Chromatella, Gene Stratton Porter, Pride of Santa Ana, Mary Elizabeth, Cora Louise, Katherine Edith, Elsa, Margaret Tyler and Edith Priscilla.

Naming the flowers has been an important phase of the pastime, said Wells. "The flowers are just as human and need as much care as a little child, so if they really live for me, why shouldn't their naming be important?" he said.

"Another of my flower favorites is the begonia," Wells said, as he became more enthusiastic in showing his visitors the various kinds he has in his garden. Some were grown from planting leaves, some from roots and others from seeds.

Two magnificent red flowered varieties towered above his head in all their splendor. These he explained, have been growing for three years.

Wells has spent 40 years in California, during which time he has discovered many of the mysteries connected with flower culture. For 15 years he has been in Santa Ana, in which time he has grown many unusual and beautiful plants in his large gardens on West First street.

VETERANS ARE THANKFUL FOR NEW PENSIONS

Near the end of a congressional session the rush of the president's pen over a bill is a common thing, fraught with no great ceremony and in many cases of no great importance.

But to veterans of the Civil war and to widows of veterans, the affixing of the chief executive's signature, last week, just before congress adjourned, to the increased pensions bill comes as a helping hand in the darkness, according to Santa Ana members of Sedgwick post and Shiloh circle.

They had hoped and prayed for the passage of that bill because no one realizes more than do the veterans, themselves, and the widows that the years of their tenure on earth can almost be counted on the 10 fingers.

By the terms of the bill, the pension of Civil war veterans is increased from $50 to $60 a month. The pensions for the totally disabled veterans are raised from $75 a month to $90 a month.

In addition to this increase, the widows of Civil war veterans will get a raise from $30 to $50 a month.

The bill became effective on the day of signing, July 8, which means that the August checks received by the veterans and the widows will include the increase, according to information received in Santa Ana.

Members of Sedgwick post looked upon the passage of the bill as the most beneficial piece of legislation for the Civil war veterans and widows of veterans in recent years. To many of them, the pension increase practically meant life or death, it was declared.

The few extra dollars will mean a few added comforts in the twilight of their lives, when the ambition of youth has vanished and the will to live depends largely upon the attentiveness of existence and the appreciation by others of the life that is fast drawing to a close.

Value of Well Baby Clinic is Told in Report

Illustrating the use to which the well baby clinic, conducted by the county social service department, is being put by mothers of the county, is the semi-annual report of the clinic, submitted today to the board of supervisors by Mrs. J. H. Leebick, superintendent.

The report shows that 133 babies have been registered this year, bringing the grand total of infants registered with the clinic to 568.

"I wish to say a word in behalf of the clinic," Mrs. W. E. Jones, of Costa Mesa, wrote to Mrs. Leebick. "The help I have received from visits to the clinic have greatly benefited me in the rearing of my two children and I can safely say that any mothers, who will avail themselves of the wonderful opportunities afforded by this clinic, will be benefited likewise."

"I find it a great comfort to have this source of knowledge at my command and feel free at any time to ask advice and know it will be graciously given by the nurse and doctor in charge."

Friendship Ties Strengthened by Athletic Tours

BERLIN, July 12.—Baron Ago Von Maltzan, German ambassador to the United States, devoted most of his official report of the successful American tour of Erich Rademacher, world's champion breast-stroke swimmer, to a discussion of the importance of athletics in fostering international relations.

The sending of first class German athletes to foreign countries is the best conceivable propaganda," the ambassador's report said.

"More attention is paid to a record-breaking athlete, like Rademacher, and more benefit accrues to Germany from such a man's performances than from any number of official delegations conveying good wishes. The American press was loud in its praise of Rademacher."

Berries Taken to Market by Plane

BERLIN, July 12.—Strawberries raised on the island of Werder, near Berlin, are sold on the streets of Copenhagen, 300 miles away, four hours after being picked.

The expansion of commercial aviation in Europe has made shipping of perishable goods a regular feature. The fastest combination rail and water route to Copenhagen takes 12 hours.

Flying schedules are so arranged that strawberries virtually go from the gardens into the planes in 1000-pound lots. They are sold in the Danish capital as "air strawberries."

ORGANIZATIONS TO HOLD JOINT MEET

Members of the Santa Ana Air club will meet tonight with the members of the junior division of the chamber of commerce in Ketter's cafe. Dinner will be served at 6:30. Stanley Clem, former president of the chamber organization, will preside over the business session, in the absence of Mason Yould, president.

Ridley Smith, secretary, declared that a number of important business matters would be taken up in the session after the entertainment program.

RANCHERS NEED NOT HOLD FEAR OF DIMINISHED WATER SUPPLY

Enough Life-Giving Fluid Available This Year to Meet Heaviest Demands

RIVER FLOW ABOUT SAME AS IN 1925

Irrigation Company Secretary Says Heavy Storms
Of April Very Beneficial

Irrigators within the district of the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation company will not have to cry for irrigation water this summer, for there will be plenty to meet the heaviest demands of the most ardent irrigators, according to Orzo Mansur, secretary of the company.

The company now is distributing 25 heads of water and is serving it on application and within 48 hours after an application is filed, the secretary stated. The cost is $1 an hour for 100 miners' inches.

The life-giving fluid now flowing in the ditches of the company is developed about 50-55 as between gravity flow of the Santa Ana river and pumped water.

About Same As 1925.

Mansur said that the flow of the river at this time is approximately what it was last year, the total being a little in excess of some of the recent dry seasons. The secretary gives credit for the volume of the practice of spreading flood water on the delta lands in the upper section of the Santa Ana river, pointing out that the company has demonstrated, to its satisfaction, that the spreading process has been very influential in increasing the summer supply of the product so essential to the prosperity of this section.

In the opinion of Mansur, it will not be necessary, this summer, to place water of the Santa Ana river to this method of distribution has not been necessary for the last three summers, it was stated.

April Rains Beneficial.

Pointing out that the heavy rains of April had been very beneficial and that good soaking of citrus and other lands had relieved early summer irrigation, the secretary said that there should be no occasion for placing the water on turn unless irrigators use more water than is really necessary to maintain their orchards and other crops. He pointed to the tendency, at times, of growers becoming a little alarmed about a shortage of water and doing unnecessary irrigation as a measure of protection against a possible shortage.

The company recently completed well No. 13, but the hoodoo number has nothing to do with the production, for it is throwing a continuous stream of 261 inches.

The organization now has a well on the drill and it is anticipated that this well will be completed within two or three weeks and that it will augment the supply by at least 300 inches.

"We are 'setting pretty' at this time and should continue in this position throughout the summer," the secretary commented.

BACHELORS SEEK TO LEARN COOKING ART

BERLIN, July 12.—Cooking schools in Berlin, primarily intended for women and girls, this year are being overrun with applications from men, both single and married, anxious to learn to cook for themselves.

Bachelors confess that they are tired of restaurant food and want to prepare their own meals. They hope also that it will be cheaper.

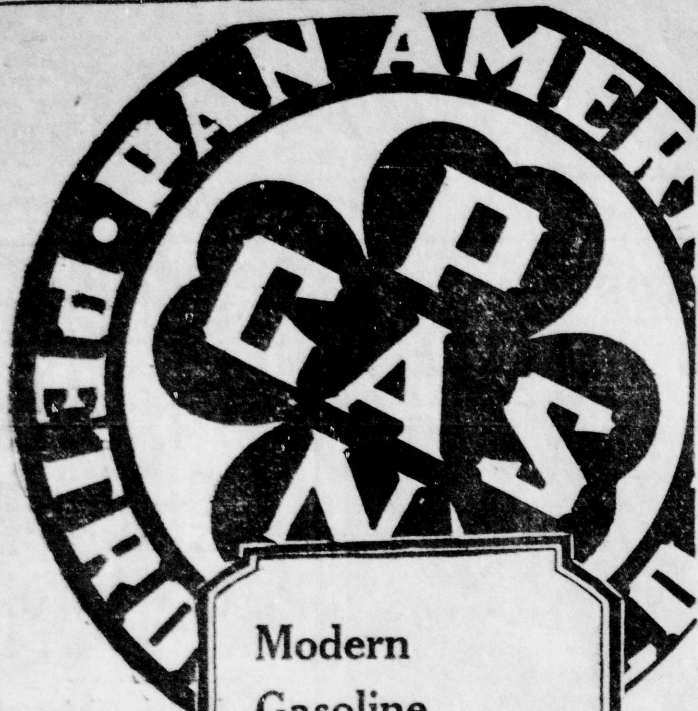

There are jobless husbands, who have wives in remunerative employment or else in bad health, who have to adapt themselves to a reversal of the housekeeping position—a veritable revolution in German life, the hausfrau having hitherto held undisputed sway in the kitchen.

MOTHER FAINTS TWICE AT SALE OF HEAD STONE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—Standing all day in a small stuffy room at the annual auction sale by the police department property clerk, and twice fainting because of the heat, a sorrowing mother was rewarded for her wait in the afternoon when she gained possession of a little gray polished granite tombstone, which will be placed over the grave of her 2-year-old son, who died last February.

The woman entered the room unnoticed in the morning at the opening of the sale, standing patiently while scores of other articles were auctioned off by Captain Bernard Judge, police property clerk. Shortly before noon, she was overcome by the heat in the room and fainted. She was soon revived, and immediately re-entered to await the time when the small stone would be put up for sale.

She Faints Again
After the noon hour she returned, but after two hours of waiting she again succumbed to the heat and collapsed. This time Detective George O'Leary and Lawrence Delmest went to her assistance, and after reviving her, began to talk, and during the conversation she told why she had come to the sale. Her small son died, she said, and she couldn't afford to buy a tombstone. She read in the newspaper where the police were holding a stone and would sell it at auction, and she came down to bid on it.

Gets It For $2
O'Leary went immediately to Captain Judge, who put the stone up for sale. There were no other bidders, and the young mother got it for $2. She was so overjoyed over the purchase that she attempted to carry it out of the room, although it weighed more than 100 pounds. To further help her, O'Leary and Delmest took her and her purchase to her home.

The tombstone had been in the property clerk's office for more than two years, being placed there after it was found on the front lawn of a Western Addition residence. It bore no inscription other than a wreath and a cross. The stone was put up for sale last year but there were no bidders and it was held until yesterday.

Captain Judge declined to disclose the name of the purchaser.

PRODUCTION OF STEEL HOLDING TO HIGH MARKS

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 12.—The condition of the steel situation in the Pittsburgh production area is "satisfactory with encouraging prospects," according to reports from both corporations and independent mills.

Mills are running at about 80 per cent of production capacity, although some in the immediate Pittsburgh area are down to a 70 per cent basis which is not considered low for this time of the year.

See No Summer Slump
So bright is the prospect of future business that some concerns, believing they can obtain better prices with the rush of all business, have limited contracts to July and August deliveries. Officials express confidence that business will not slump during the summer months the period of the usual lull.

An increase in the production of automobile steel has been most noticeable. Since the damp cool days of a lingering spring have passed a demand for automobiles has been stimulated and automobile manufacturers report a decided spurt in orders, resulting in large steel contracts.

Pipe Mills Busy
Pipe mills report that production has been boosted to 80 per cent of capacity within the last month. Because of the heavy demand, buying in all departments has hit an unusually high point and an all-around healthy condition was indicated.

Railroad men, however, do not report so encouragingly, although they admit that steel shipments within the last six weeks have exceeded those of the same period last year.

Railroad officials claim that steel executives have included ingot production in their reports. They said ingot production was largely an inter-plant tonnage and should not be figured in actual output totals.

Would Exclude Ingots
Steel men contend that the only proper basis for production calculation must include ingot production declaring that the tonnage of finished products, shipped by rail, would not be fair to the mills.

No one, however, is complaining seriously. The consensus of opinion is conditions are satisfactory and prospects encouraging.

Stage and Screen

Charles Ray and Joan Crawford in "Paris," picture now at the West Coast-Walker.

Clara Bow now starring in the film, "The Primrose Path" at the Yost theater.

YOST BROADWAY THEATER

Skilfully directed and delightfully acted, Rupert Julian's production of underworld life, "Silence," is about as thrilling a photoplay as has yet been at the Yost Broadway theater. Suspense, dramatic action and sure-fire thrills follow one another in quick succession to one of the most sensational and exciting climaxes ever witnessed on the screen. This is a picturization of the highly-successful stage play of the same name which ran for nearly a year in New York and enroute, and one can scarcely suggest any improvement in the treatment of the theme.

"Silence" is a highly-exciting underworld story which deals with a gentleman crook who shoulders responsibility for a slaying committed by his own daughter. To shield her he permits himself to be condemned to death and despite every attempt made to have him tell the truth, he maintains silence. The scenes are laid in prison and in the underworld. Featured players are Vera Reynolds, who delightfully portrays a dual role, that of mother and daughter, H. B. Warner, as the crook, Raymond Hatton, Rockcliffe Fellowes, Jack Mulhall and Virginia Pearson.

WEST COAST-WALKER
Laughs and thrills crowd each other and battle for supremacy in "Paris." Edmund Goulding's new production now playing at the West Coast-Walker theater, until it is hard to tell just what type of story it is. There are enough laughs in it to class it as a comedy—still there are enough thrills in it to class it as a thriller—and then again there is enough poignant drama to class it as a dramatic feature.

The story features Charles Ray and Joan Crawford at the head of a notable cast in which every actor and actress stages a surprise by playing in a role different from anything he or she has attempted heretofore.

Ray, famous for country boy roles, swashbuckles through the Paris underworld as a dress-suited, debonair American tourist, of wealth, who isn't flustered even when he finds himself by accident in the midst of a strange Apache plot.

YOST THEATER
The glittering night life of a popular city cafe, with its glamor and tinsel, is painted in vivid contrast to the sterner realities which oftentimes ride in the wake of a mad search for pleasure in "The Primrose Path," the picture now showing at the Yost theater.

"The Primrose Path" concerns itself with the story of young Bruce Armstrong, who found the road to real happiness through trouble and heartbreak, and Marilyn Merrill, lovely young dancer, who was not contaminated either by her hectic life or her associates. An interesting angle of the story weaves itself around little Jimmie Armstrong, the crippled brother of Bruce, whose loyalty was forced to such a fierce battle with honor and truth.

CARRIER CASE IS DISMISSED

The commission had previously taken jurisdiction, under the 1919 amendment of the auto-stage and truck transportation act, over such private contract carriers. In its decision, however, the commission declares that, in view of the determination by the U. S. supreme court in the case of Frost and Frost vs. railroad commission that this provision is unconstitutional insofar as it attempts to force such carriers to become common carriers, the Lang case must be dismissed.

Ford to Receive New Airship Plan

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 12.—Plans of a combination airplane, dirigible and helicopter, believed by the inventors to make aviation safe, are to be presented by three Kansans to Henry Ford in the hope they can interest him in the manufacture of the new aircraft.

Fourteen patents on the machine have been granted.

David H. Good, a retired farmer, has been working on his flying machine for more than a year. It has three bags filled with helium or hydrogen gas. The car below the bag contains the engines, which turn nine propellers.

The propellers are so arranged they will raise the machine to the proper height desired and they can be turned so as to drive the ship forward.

FAMED FOR BISCUITS

COLUMBIA, Mo., July 12.—Annie Fisher, Columbia's highly respected negro "mammy," bakes biscuits all day long, for the demand for her products has reached as far as Wall street. Every student who ever attended the university knows Annie Fisher, through her cooking. She receives large orders for biscuits from graduates.

Chicks Plucked In Freak Storm

BETHANY, Mo., July 12.—Chickens stripped of their feathers and dismembered, with even the pin feathers on the legs picked clean, was one of the freaks of a storm that passed over this section, reported by residents. Fred Crous, a farmer, says he watched from his house a riding plow picked up by the wind and carried to the side of his barn, wrecked by the storm.

WILDEST OF WILD WEST TOWNS EXISTS TODAY IN OIL BOOM REGION OF TEXAS

Above is shown main street of Borger, Texas, where you can still find the old wild west. Six months ago this site was nothing but a barren plain. Below is an artist's conception of a scene in one of its dance halls.

WOMAN IS POWER IN FINANCE GAME

NEW YORK, July 12.—Finance has been considered traditionally as a man's game, but the new women are coming into Wall Street.

In the financial district, women no longer are content to play the roles of secretary, stenographer and clerk. They have entered the sacred precincts of bank and bond house executive offices and are winning a new respect.

The Association of Bank Women has doubled its membership in two years. One hundred and forty women executives are now in the fold.

Several women, who are sales managers of "women's departments" in large bond houses, say that most of their customers are men.

Wife in Prison; Reformer Wants Term Increased

TACOMA, July 12.—Soon after his wife had been sentenced to serve 60 days in the city jail for drunken driving J. H. Davids, who has a local reputation as a crusader against vice, appeared before the city council and urged passage of an ordinance trebling the maximum imprisonment for drunken driving. Davids suggested that drunken driving be punished by imprisonment by not less than nine months in jail, a heavy fine and revocation of the driver's license. The local limit is 90 days in jail and $300 fine.

Beauty Experts' Duties Are Light

LONDON, July 12.—Beauty experts are finding business lighter and American and British debutantes are enjoying relaxation after the strict "training" they underwent in preparation for being presented at court.

Eating on diet, attending beauty parlor soirees and then home early to bed was the strict regime of most of those lucky enough to be included for presentation at the first court.

Now the second group of debutantes is undergoing similar training for their "bow" to the king and queen.

Oldest Military Chief is Honored

LONDON, July 12.—Gen. Sir George Higgenson, England's oldest military commander, who has lived in the reigns of five sovereigns and numbers the present king among his personal friends, has just celebrated his 100th birthday. Marlow, the General's little Thames-side home town, was en fete in honor of the centenarian, whose military career dates back to the Crimean war and who is a personal link with the days when England had no automobiles, telegraph or trains and when her peasants wore smocks and her soldiers sabretaches.

Every person in Canada last year consumed more than his own weight in flour. Domestic purchases amounted about a barrel per head, or 196 pounds for every man, woman and child.

Bleached cornflakes turned out by a Minneapolis milling company are in demand by the motion picture studios for use as artificial snow.

Visitor Won't Get Hurt If He Refrains from Wear- ing White Hat

AMARILLO, Tex., July 12.—Gomorra was a 9 o'clock town, and Babylon's wickedness was overrated; the newest candidates for the rain of blazing brimstone are the newly-born boom towns, sprawling under the hot sun on the broad plain of the Texas panhandle.

These towns weren't in existence seven months ago. They grew up overnight when oil men discovered that the panhandle contained potentially the greatest oil field in the world. And into its short compass are jammed all the vices of the bad old western frontier.

Let it be said at the start that several of the oil boom towns in the panhandle are highly respectable, peopled by working men who came to work. But in others the old west lives again. Take the boom town of Borger, for example.

Old-time Dance Halls

In it you may see dance halls exactly like those lawless things that flourished in the California and Nevada mining camps generations ago, mining camps that are now pictured luridly on the screen, but are seen nowhere else. You can find typical moving-picture gambling halls, regular old-time wild west saloons, ferocious bad men who go about with six-shooters strapped to their hips.

If you go there to see the sights you won't get hurt if you keep quiet and don't look for trouble; always provided you remember one thing—

You mustn't wear a white hat.

The white hat is the symbol of the Texas Rangers, and the Texas Rangers are as popular there as Trotsky at a chamber of commerce convention. If you wear a white hat someone is apt to take a pot shot at you from behind a hitching post. But otherwise you'll be all right.

As the sun goes down the big business starts. The workers start coming into town in droves, and soon the thump of unskilled feet shuffling on rough planks to the tune of wheezy ragtime mingles with the hum of voices, loud laughter, a few curses and—occasionally—a shot or two.

Challenge to Dance

You can go to "Ma's" or to "Mattie's" dance hall, where there are 200 ladies of the kind known as "dance hall girls." If you do the girls will challenge you to dance, at 25 cents a dance. Of this sum each girl gets a dime.

Or you can go into any one of a dozen saloons and buy anything to drink except water. If your tastes run that way you can risk your money—though risk is hardly the word—at anything from three-card monte to stud poker, played at a table that is surrounded by barbed wire to keep the kibitzers from peeking over the shoulders of the players.

There are fights in plenty in these places. Usually there are ordinary fist fights, with feet and teeth used as a secondary line of defense; but gun fights are not infrequent. The majority of the bad men are poor shots; however, for in all the shootings to date no one has been killed.

Policemen Mere Decorations

Three home-made policemen with pearl-handled pistols strut about the streets, but they see no evil and hear no evil. They are decorative, but that's about all.

The whole thing is like nothing so much as a lurid movie of the old west. It is true to type if not true to life. Swaggerers with revolvers, short-skirted dancing girls, cold-eyed gamblers—they're all there.

Genuine bad men are scarce, however. There were a few attempts at highway robbery and the like, but the Texas plainmen and cowboys are too well used to handling shots; however, for in all the shootings to date no one has been killed. Life and limb aren't

WILL SEEK TRACE OF ANCIENT RACE

CHICAGO, July 12.—Anthropologists of the University of Chicago, whose scholars have dug into the history of man in Egypt and other far-away countries, will start excavations in Illinois at once to determine what kind of men lived in this state centuries ago.

The expedition will have a two-fold purpose, according to Prof. Fay-Cooper Cole. It will locate the sites of ancient Indian settlements in the state and will encourage the building of museums in Illinois cities. "Illinois is the center of the richest archeological territory in the middle-west," said Professor Cole. "The mound builders who lived here hundreds of years ago are almost unknown. Their mounds, the evidences of a once important society, remain virtually unexplored, and it is our aim to find out what they contain. A rich culture has been discovered in Ohio, extending, to all appearances, across to Iowa over the state of Illinois."

Chicago Alimony Bureau Formed

CHICAGO, July 12.—Cook county's alimony bureau, a unique institution sponsored by Superior Judge Joseph Sabath, was organized here following action by the county board providing an appropriation for the expenses of collecting and distributing the $5,000,000 in alimony paid annually by divorced husbands to their former wives. The first alimony commissioner is Mrs. Margaret Donar, of the bureau of public welfare. It will be Mrs. Donar's duty to accept from thousands of divorced husbands the alimony they have been ordered to pay for the support of their ex-wives and children. She will make out checks for the amounts and mail them to the women.

Zoo Keeper in Fight With Ape

OAKLAND, July 12.—An infuriated ape attacked Chief Keeper J. W. Huppert, in the Sequoia park zoo, while the keeper was cleaning out the simian's cage.

Huppert's cries for help attracted W. E. Blackwood, another zoo employee, who beat off the animal with a club, allowing Huppert to escape with bleeding gashes in his arms and hand, which were cauterized at a hospital.

The animal is a Japanese ape named "Goofy," heretofore listed as tractable. Huppert had a desperate struggle to prevent the maddened creature from reaching his throat.

Dog Saves Master Attacked by Bull

LEWISTON, Ida., July 12.—Sidney M. Brown, farmer of Clarkston, Wn., owes his life to a faithful collie, which kept at bay a maddened Guernsey bull until assistance came. Brown was knocked down, trampled and gored into unconsciousness before the dog fastened its fangs in the nose of the onrushing bull and held on. Every time he was hurled aside the collie returned to the attack, successfully defending the man.

In any real danger is one doesn't look for trouble.

Jap Married to American Girl Commits Suicide

EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 12.—William Idi, 22 years old, Japanese waiter, sacrificed his life that his white girl bride might be happy. His body was found in a gas-filled room here. He had been dead apparently 10 days.

Two weeks before, Idi and Gladys Hines, 19, were married. A letter found in the room told a tragic tale of the barrier between the Japanese and this white sweetheart.

"If you don't give me $100 to get the marriage annulled," it said, "I'll kill myself. Father says that if I married a Japanese he would send both of us to jail. I don't want to go to jail, sweetheart, and would die by inches if I had to go."

The annulment was granted by the Japanese himself and the gas wrote out the decree.

ESTIMATES MADE ON WHEAT YIELD

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The nation's winter wheat crop now being harvested, is estimated by the agriculture department at 567,762,000 bushels, compared with 598,000,000 bushels harvested last year and a five-year average of 539,000,000 bushels.

The corn crop was estimated at 2,660,780,000 bushels, compared with 2,901,000,000 bushels last year and the five-year average of 2,848,000,000 bushels.

The spring wheat crop was estimated at 199,595,000 bushels, compared with 271,000,000 last year and a five-year average of 252,000,000.

Spring wheat acreage was estimated at 29,834,000 and conditions at 64.3 or normal, compared with 78.5 on June 1.

All wheat, both spring and winter, was estimated at 767,357,000 bushels, compared with 669,000,000 last year. Total wheat acreage was estimated at 57,687,000 and condition at 73.6 per cent of normal, compared with 73.4 a year ago.

Former Kaiser To Reveal Self In New Volume

BERLIN, July 12.—The former kaiser, as seen by himself, will be revealed in a second volume of his memoirs to be published soon, with many photographs of himself as a youth.

While exposing many of the intrigues of that period of his life together with such intimate details as he recollects, he has jealously guarded the work prior to its general release. Not even his wife nor the former crown prince has been permitted to glimpse it, the manuscript being kept locked up when he was not working.

Among the portraits is an aquatint by Queen Victoria, for which he posed when about two years old. It is signed by her and dated March 27, 1861.

last year. Total wheat acreage was estimated at 57,687,000 and condition at 73.6 per cent of normal, compared with 73.4 a year ago.

British Aviator Is Shot by Arab

BASRA, Iraq, July 12.—An Arab's bullet has halted Alan Cobham's flight from London to Australia. His mechanic, Elliott, is in the hospital here in a serious condition, and Cobham is uncertain whether to await his recovery or to proceed with one of the British air force mechanics here.

Cobham's plane was about 100 miles from this city when a bullet penetrated the fuselage, ricocheted off a copper feed pipe and penetrated Elliott's chest and arm, shattering a rib and puncturing his lung.

Cobham brought the plane down on the River Shatt El Arab, near the city, and carried his wounded companion ashore.

The Jordan valley is the most depressed spot of the earth's surface—over a thousand feet below the level of the sea—while the local fish and vegetation are characteristic not of Asia but of Africa.

Told He's Slayer, Man Kills Himself

WEST NEW YORK, N. J., July 12.—Paul Bethamann, a weaver, with a family, woke up in a cell and shrieked out his curiosity as to the reason for being there. "Shut up!" yelled another prisoner, "you're in for murder." There was prolonged silence, and Bethamann was found to have strangled himself. He had been put into a cell to sleep off his intoxication.

Some More Specialties

Arrow Carbolineum

Lots of people still wonder how to get rid of chicken mites—not the lice, but the mites. Painting or spraying once a year, thoroughly, with Arrow Carbolineum will forever solve the problem.

Cyanogas Dust

It is a fine ground dust of Cyanide. Poured down a rat, gopher, squirrel, or ant hole—just a little—about a spoonful—it kills them "right now."

K. M. G. (Kills Morning Glories)

This is something new, but we believe it to be the most efficient weed killing spray ever put on the market. It will kill a morning glory root to a depth of 15 feet. Simply spray the matured plant in the late afternoon.

Drop into this store and let us explain these specialties to you. We're not trying to "slip something over" on our friends. If our representation and guarantee do not seem reasonable to you—don't buy. That's all we ask.

Women Find

Great comfort in this new hygienic pad that discards easily as tissue—no laundry

ON many important counts, women are deserting the old-time "sanitary pad."

There is a new way. A way that multiplies protection. A way, too, that solves the old problem and embarrassment of disposal.

It is called "KOTEX." Ends the insecurity of the old-time sanitary pad. Five times as absorbent and odorless—ends ALL fear of offending.

As easily disposed of as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

You get it at any drug or department store simply by saying "KOTEX." You ask for it without hesitancy.

Costs only a few cents. Eight in 10 better-class women employ it. Proves old ways an unnecessary risk.

KOTEX No Laundry—discard like tissue

And as a preventive of skin troubles, keep your skin soft, white and cool, use Zemo soap regularly. It is a delightful, fragrant cleanser and antiseptic. Any drug store can supply you. 60c and $1.00.

3 ARRESTED IN RAID ON DELHI COUNTRY CLUB

Three men are in the county jail on liquor charges and deputy sheriffs are searching for two others in connection with an alleged gambling game, said to have been operated in Delhi for several days. The arrests followed a raid on the Delhi Country club, last night.

Just what the Delhi Country club is, its purposes and who is at the head of it, officers declined to state.

The men arrested are Dolores Montas, 38, being held on a drunk charge, and Raymon Monteano, 70, and Juan Caranza, 44, who will likely face possession of liquor charges, officers stated.

The trio will be given a hearing before Judge Kenneth Morrison today.

The raid on the Delhi club was staged by Ed McClellan, chief sponsor of the deputies, who confiscated cards and poker chips. No arrests were made on gambling charges, but several are expected, it was said.

RECORD RUSH FOR DIAMOND CLAIMS

JOHANNESBURG, July 12.—The proclamation of the new diamond field on the farm Elandsputte, which attracted over 10,000 diggers with their families and native servants from all parts of the Western and Central Transvaal, was attended by scenes unparalleled in the history of South African diamond digging.

It was a "record rush." The diggers had to race in a long line for four miles over boulder-strewn fields to the proclaimed ground. The great cloud of dust raised by thousands of hurrying feet resembled the creeping barrage of the massed guns of an army. Many horses were killed and picked up by the diggers for the family pot. Six champion or former champion runners, who took part, were engaged by wealthy diggers to secure the best claims.

There are said to be 20,000 persons on Elandsputte, constituting a large town, where a few days ago was only virgin veldt, and the authorities are suddenly confronted with grave problems. The government has to insure the maintenance of law and order and provide means of communication with the rest of the union; it must grapple immediately with the problem of sanitation and provide medical attendance and hospital accommodations.

L. A. Advertising Man Protests at Florida Justice

SACRAMENTO, July 12.—Ill feeling manifested toward Californians by this state's greatest climatic rival are blamed by S. H. Warner, Los Angeles advertising man, for the troubles that beset him when he went to Florida from this state.

Warner purchased a second-hand automobile in Jacksonville, Fla., but couldn't obtain a license for it, because he failed to get a clear bill of sale. He brought the machine to California with like result. When he protested to the company about his difficulties, he said, they tried to have him extradited for taking the automobile out of Florida without their permission. The governor's office refused the request of Florida for Warner's extradition. The automobile meanwhile turned out to be anything but the 1925 car Warner thought he was buying.

"If all this is justice in Florida, then I thank God my home is in California," Warner declared.

Wants Realism In Stage Plays

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 12.—One little theater pioneering professor, Carol Sax, of the University of Kentucky, believes the person who does not want the truth on the stage is the worst enemy of the theater and drama today.

Admitting there is trouble aplenty in real life, let alone added realism on the stage, Professor Sax sees sugar-coated Cinderella staging and cinemas as entertaining enough, but not suitable for a steady diet.

He wants honesty in the theater, plays true to life, by which one gains sympathy and understanding of fellowmen; for the most important factor in any drama he believes is that all acts contribute definitely to a definite end.

Police Post Near Pole Is Planned

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 12.—An effort will be made this year to land three Royal Mounted Canadian policemen on the Barclay peninsula, which is in latitude 79, only 11 degrees from the north pole, according to George P. Mackenzie, who is in charge of arctic exploration for the Canadian government. If the effort is successful, this will be the most northerly Royal Canadian Mounted Police post and will be the farthest north that Canada has ever extended her administrative officers.

Coolidge Will Visit Old Home

PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., July 12.—President Coolidge plans on visiting his Vermont home in Plymouth next week. He will not stay there more than two or three days.

YOUNG STRESSES PROGRESS OF SOUTHLAND INDUSTRIES

Lt. Gov. C. C. Young, (left) discussing industries of Southern California with J. B. Ransom, president of the J. B. Ransom corporation, one of the firms which sponsored the Industrial Booster caravan.

Lieutenant Governor Urges Backing of Colorado River Project

Declaring that Southern California in the future must be dependent in a substantial way on development of industry and must, therefore, have the benefit of power and water for irrigation and domestic consumption, Lt. Gov. C. C. Young strongly urged his hearers, in Montebello park, recently, to sponsor the movement initiated by the industrial booster caravan, which recently visited this city.

So successful was the motorcade, in its visit to 42 cities and towns of Southern California, carrying a slogan, "Boosting for the Development of the Colorado River and Industry," that plans already are under way for the second Industrial Booster caravan, to be conducted at about the same time next year.

Lieutenant Governor Young stressed the progress already made in the establishment of industry in Southern California and declared that the future depends largely on adequate development of the Colorado river.

"With more than 6000 industries now in Southern California," he said, "we must continue this almost unprecedented development by insuring enough electrical energy and water for irrigation and domestic purposes for several times our present population. The metropolitan district last year produced a billion and a quarter dollars worth of manufactured goods, employing more than 200,000 persons, whose annual payroll was in excess of $300,000,000. Even though this district stood seventh, last year, as a manufacturing center, we have just only started. What will be the situation in five years, 10 years, or a quarter of a century? What will be our requirements for motive power and water?"

FORMER PARTNER OF EDISON ACTIVE

BERLIN, July 12.—Dr. Sigmund Bergmann, co-experimenter with Thomas A. Edison during the time in which the phonograph and incandescent lamp were invented, is entering his seventy-sixth year, not much less active than his illustrious friend in Menlo Park, N. J.

Dr. Bergmann is director-general of the Bergmann Electric company, Berlin, which he founded after his return from the United States in 1890. In addition he devotes many hours a day in his laboratory trying to perfect electrical appliances.

Bergmann emigrated to the United States in 1889. After several years of work with Edison, he two organized the electrical manufacturing company of S. Bergmann and company, of New York, which formed the nucleus of what now is the General Electric company.

Scotch Want to Come to America

LONDON, July 12.—Applications for U. S. immigrant visas have increased by 30 to 40 per cent since the pinch in the coal stoppage began to be felt in the Scottish coal fields, the American consulate in Glasgow reports. The applications are coming in at the rate of between 100 and 200 daily.

There is no prospect of the visas being granted within the next year as there is already a waiting list of 17,000 applications representing 26,000 persons.

Governor Receives 7 Cents as Wages

HONOLULU, July 12.—A certified check for seven cents was presented to Hon. Wallace R. Farrington, governor of Hawaii, by the Matson Navigation company here, recently, in payment for labor done by the executive in Philadelphia shipyards. While on an official trip to the mainland, Governor Farrington inspected the building of the S. S. Malolo, new passenger liner, which will be put on the Honolulu-San Francisco run next year. At the request of the builders, he drove a rivet into the hull of the boat. The company reciprocated with a check.

MUSSOLINI PLANS INSTITUTE OF LAW

ROME, July 12.—The bill to establish, in Rome, an international institute of private law has been presented to the chamber of deputies.

In a report accompanying the draft bill, Signor Mussolini describes the foundation of this institute and its relation to the League of Nations, under which it has been placed.

The institute will be housed at the Palazzo Giustiniani, until recently the headquarters of the Italian Free Masons, and will catalogue and attempt to co-ordinate the legislation of the various states.

Its statute, drafted by a special commission of Italian jurists, has been approved by the council of the League of Nations after examination by the league commission for intellectual co-operation and by a special commission of experts. The Italian government will contribute the sum of 1,000,000 lire a year toward the maintenance of the institute.

THE STORY OF EDGAR ALLEN POE

BY REDNER

Edgar Poe was born in Boston, Jan. 19, 1809. His mother was Elizabeth Arnold, an actress and an Englishwoman. She was favorably known in the larger American cities as an excellent singer and dancer. Poe's father was David, son of David Poe of Baltimore, who served in the Revolution and, though 82, in the war of 1812.

The theater in America was not then so prosperous, and the mother had to make many sacrifices for her three children.

David Poe, Edgar's father, was the scion of a good Baltimore family, but was a poor actor, unthrifty and addicted to drink.

Elizabeth Arnold Poe died in Richmond, Va., Dec. 8, 1811, when Edgar was not quite two years old. On the following Christmas night the Richmond theater burned, the governor of Virginia and scores of people losing their lives. Edgar's father died within a few weeks of his mother and the three children were left on charity. (Continued.)

Good Pay Far Off for College Girl, Says Cynthia

BY CYNTHIA GREY

After college, what? As June approaches, the mail brings me letters daily from young girl graduates who are looking for their proper niche in business.

The cry seems to be chiefly for "interesting work" and for work that will pay well to start. This bears out the contention of New York's greatest vocational specialist, who said to me the other day, "College girls are the hardest to place of all who come to me. They have training. It is true, but they want too much in the beginning."

My girl correspondents assure me that they are intelligent enough and well enough trained to take jobs out of the usual run of beginners' work. I believe in college for both girls and boys. But I also think it is a great pity for college to go to young people's heads. These hopeful letters from college girls make me sad. They mean so many tragedies and disappointments ahead. Perhaps these girls won't believe me when I tell them that the average beginning salary for a college girl is $22 a week—that she must start with the most monotonous routine job and work her way up according to her own ability.

It doesn't make much difference what college she attended, or what her record there was. Business takes nobody's word for anything. The man looking for an employee will use his own judgment of the girls that apply and let them do the rest. Most business men—especially of the self-made variety—are even slightly prejudiced against college girls.

It is after she finds her footing that her college training begins to show up. It shortens the climb for her, smooths away rough contacts, enables her to meet the right people, and gives her personal resources of culture and imagination.

INDIVIDUALITY

The fiddler wishes he could sing, The writer longs to paint, The subject wishes to be king, The devil would be saint, But wise is he who plods along And leaves the singer to his song.

Oh, let the dancer dance, say I, One job's enough for me, 'Twere nice to paint a summer sky And take the artist's fee, 'Twere nice to do another's work, But I've a task I must shirk.

I have no voice with which to sing, I'm clumsy with the dance, I could not to a canvas bring Life's beauty and romance, My job, as far as I can see, Is just to make a man of me.

So though my task be commonplace, I'll find what joy I can, The tests of life I'll try to face, As well befits a man, I'll do my best and plod along And leave the singer to his song.

How Much to Buy? Hints For Vegetable Marketing

By SISTER MARY

When we go to market and particularly a roadside market, we sometimes wonder how much to buy. Or when our grocer tells us peas are so much a pound, we wonder how many pounds it will take to serve our family.

And when we buy for canning with the sole idea of economy, if we have no idea how many cans we should get from a bushel we sometimes find our endeavor pure extravagance. Perhaps these calculations will help you, but you must remember that the condition of any produce you are buying is a large factor in determining how much the material will yield when cooked.

One pound of green or "string" beans measures approximately one quart and yields about 2-1/2 cups of cooked beans. This will serve 5 persons.

Two pounds of green peas in pod measure about 2 quarts. After shelling there will be about 2-1/2 cups. This amount will serve 3 or 4 persons, depending somewhat on the manner in which they are prepared. If the peas are cooked dry and buttered, only 3 persons can be served, but if milk or cream is added 4 can be taken care of.

One pound of clean, tender spinach will serve 4. Market men figure that a bushel of spinach weighs from 15 to 20 pounds, with a good average of 18. If you are canning spinach it will take about 11-2 pounds of spinach to make a pint can.

Baby beets vary greatly in size, but it's safe to calculate on 12 serving 4 persons. It will take from 12 to 15 to make two cups or fill a pint can.

The average "bunch" of new carrots will serve 4 persons.

A three pound head of cabbage will shred to serve 6 or 8 persons.

Four small ears of corn, such as "golden bantam," will cut to make 2 cups or one pint can. A large variety needs only 3 and sometimes fewer ears to make a pint can of corn.

There are 3 medium sized potatoes in one pound. This will make about 2 cups of mashed potato. One bushel of potatoes weighs 60 pounds.

Four rather small tomatoes weigh about 1 pound. A bushel of tomatoes will give about 18 quarts or 3 pints of canned tomatoes.

One bushel of peaches will yield about 18 quart cans.

These are all averages, of course, but may give you some sort of a working basis from which to reckon.

Tourist excursions are now run on the Cape-to-Cairo railway, between Egypt and South Africa.

THE WAIST LINE

Waist lines are spreading in the most extraordinary degree. Fifteen to 25 years ago young girls actually boasted if they had small waists, and pulled themselves in with heavily boned stays to achieve what was considered a beautiful figure. I cannot conceive how any of them managed to live and be reasonably healthy when one considers what they were doing to their insides. I should have thought that the least that would happen would be consumption, as none of them could draw in a proper breath of air, and I am sure they couldn't eat much for there was not much room left for food.

All this has changed for the better. An average waistline today on a slender person is 26 inches where once it was 18, this measurement giving a better outline to the figure and room for proper development. There is, however, one danger, the modern girl very sensibly goes without stays. As long as she stands straight this is excellent, but the moment she allows herself to slouch she gets better off with some sort of support around the waist and abdomen. There's a growing tendency to stand with round shoulders and protruding abdomen which throws out of position various muscles in the stomach and around the liver and kidneys, and which can cause a great deal of damage to the health.

Measure your waistline from time to time if you think it is spreading. If you're getting too stout all over you can keep the waist down by reducing, but if you're not too stout keep the waist line within bounds by wearing an unbanded elastic girdle, one that is long enough to come well down over the hips and about one inch above the waist. These girdles will not spoil the outline of the figure nor will they give it any unbecoming stiffness. The best kinds have two small bones over the abdomen and a bracing of muslin between them to keep the girdle from stretching in front.

WRANGLE OVER WHITE HOUSE ROOF REPAIR

WASHINGTON, July 12.—President Coolidge apparently doesn't take much stock in the technical and administrative abilities of army officers and, inversely, those same officers are becoming rather irked at the attitude of their commander-in-chief.

On two occasions recently the official spokesman took occasion to refer slightly to the activities of military men in civilian capacity. The first time was in connection with the efforts of General Wood, governor of the Philippines, to get sufficient money to engage civilian assistants, and the spokesman agreed it was a wise policy, adding that civilians were better equipped to handle administration work.

The final blow came, however, in a discussion of the condition of the White House roof, which has been condemned. Mr. Coolidge, the spokesman said, was convinced that a new roof was necessary and that to continue longer with the present one would be dangerous.

This opinion was reached, however, he continued, only after the president had had a number of long talks with a contractor, make a survey of the roof to supplement the report of the army engineers. The latter, it was added, would characteristically, "tear down the White House to fix the chimney."

That remark was too much for the doughboys to endure. Of course, they couldn't come out openly and take issue, but privately their conversation is anything but pleasant. The subject is a matter of constant discussion in army circles.

"Statements such as that are a fine incentive to the engineers in their efforts to make the White House a safe place to live in," remarked one high officer.

"A few more cracks like that and Coolidge will ruin the morale of the whole army," added another.

Still another officer refuted the White House spokesman's statement that army engineers were the first to survey the now-famous roof. Civilian architects of the office of public buildings and grounds were responsible for the report made to the president by the engineers, he said.

Our Neighbors

BRAWLEY—Grape shipping season in Imperial valley is now at its peak, and it is predicted that 500 carloads, mostly Thompson and Malaga, will be shipped from local points this year. The output last season was 378 cars. Twenty carloads were forwarded last week, seven going from Brawley, 10 from El Centro and three from Calexico. Most of the crop is moving east, and growers are realizing better profits this year than usual. That the melon season is practically at an end, was indicated when the Pacific Fruit association closed its office last week. Average shipments were about 100 cars a day, divided equally between cantaloupes and watermelons. Within another week it is anticipated practically all fields will be cleaned up.

MONROVIA—Indicative of steady general development, Monrovia postal receipts for the first six months of 1926 showed an 11 per cent increase over the same period last year, it is announced by Postmaster George Baker. Further showing steady growth, this approximate increase has prevailed for each semi-yearly period during the last 10 years. Baker also announced a $5000 increase in business for the fiscal year ending June 30. During the last 10 years, postal business here has doubled twice. Baker's report showed, while 11 carriers now handle the work accomplished by three in 1916.

POMONA—Over $1,000,000 growth in resources again marks the commercial reports of Pomona's financial institutions, as compared with reports of one year ago. Nearing the $18,000,000 mark for the first time, once more the financial statements of Pomona's banks and building and loan associations makes a new high record, in spite of the summer holiday season. One year ago, upon call of the various financial government authorities, it was shown that the city's fiscal institutions had not quite reached the 17 million dollar mark in resources, or $16,850,388.24 to be exact. Now, the scales which weigh valley wealth as accurately as any possible financial index show that another million mark in resource-growth has been made, with totals of $17,851,344. While resources have grown $1,025,955.20, more than that amount has gone into working clothes for the benefit of the valley, because loans have increased in the amount of $2,141,557.17. Loans now total $14,947,081.23, as compared with the total of a year ago, $12,805,474.06.

CALEXICO—Approximately 10,000,000 persons passed through the international gateway in this city during the fiscal year which ended June 18, according to figures made public by Inspector-in-Charge H. M. Robbins. Traffic through the Calexico-Mexicali port during the year exceeded all previous records. Robbins stated, Mexican applicants for permanent entry into the United States numbered 5641, practically all of whom were qualified for admission.

ONTARIO.—With the apricot pack already completed by the majority of houses, canneries of the Ontario valley are busy preparing for the peach pack, which is expected to commence in earnest this week. The Cutler-Lobinger company's East Main street plant completed its run on apricots last week, a majority of the tonnage having been shipped in from Northern California fruit centers, and, according to officials, will be ready for the peach pack tomorrow. The Cucamonga house of the California Co-operative Canneries finished on the "cots" earlier in the week, while the Chino plant of the Libby, McNeil and Libby company will require several more days to finish with this fruit.

NEWS FROM ORANGE COUNTY TO ## NEW ANAHEIM PHONE PLANT IS FINISHED

ANAHEIM, July 12.—Completion of the installation of the first unit of new equipment in the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company's new building on North Lemon street was announced today by Manager E. A. Beard.

Included in the new equipment is a centralized testing plant designed to test long distance lines radiating in all directions from Anaheim, a power plant to convert electricity so that it will be suitable for telephone service, a storage battery to insure a constant flow of power, a number of "repeaters" for strengthening long distance calls handled through the local office and a maze of other highly technical equipment necessary to the successful operation of the plant.

This unit is the first of what the telephone company last year announced would be extensive improvements of the Anaheim exchange this year, the total cost of which was set at $153,460. Of this amount, $108,350 was at the time of the original announcement set as the cost of the plant; $40,850 was to be spent for outside equipment and $760 for miscellaneous plant equipment.

The testing equipment, marvelous in its intricacy and ability to detect the slightest flaw in the system, at any point in the service, occupies considerable space in the new building.

In the pioneer days of the telephone, every phone had its own set of dry batteries but now, whenever there is a considerable number of instruments in use within a reasonably small area, the electricity is supplied from the central office. The new Anaheim plant now has a power plant that vitalizes the long distance lines for a large part of Orange county and a vast battery of such size that it will keep the system in operation for considerable time in case of some accident which might cut off the regular supply of power.

WORLD RECORD AIM OF OLINDA OIL WELL CREW

OLINDA, July 12.—A world's record for oil well depth will come to Orange county if the crew at the Chancellor, Canfield Midway oil company's No. 96 well has no bad luck this week. The well today stood at 7477 feet, slightly more than 100 feet under the California record and within 400 feet of the world's record of 7800 feet held by a well in Pennsylvania.

The well at the present time holds a record for being the deepest well ever drilled with electrical equipment. It has been the opinion of oil men that electrical equipment would not do so well in a deep test.

The company is drilling a six and one-fourth inch hole and has just purchased 8000 feet of new casing, which will be dropped in the hole at the well, every effort is being made and care being taken to push the well on down.

The California record for depth is held by E. J. Miley at Rosemead, with a depth of 7591 feet. When this depth was reached by the Miley company, it was hailed as a world's record but recent reports are to the effect that a Pennsylvania well holds the record at a depth of about 7800 feet. To make things sure, the Olinda crew intends to go down at least 8000 feet.

According to reports at the well, some excellent indications have been encountered and there is a possibility of tapping an even deeper strata that has ever been found before. Fair indications are now showing at the bottom of the hole, according to reports.

The groom was accompanied by Bert Marshall as best man, Hilda Ucelman and Ottilla Danner, carrying sweet peas and wearing dresses of pastel shades, were the bridesmaids. Get Quaker Oats today. Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker, which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, and Quaker Oats.

ASSOCIATED COMPANY PLANS PIPE LINE TO HUNTINGTON BEACH WILDCAT OIL WELL

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 12.—Indicating that oil will soon be secured in commercial quantities in the section of this city recently thrown open for oil drilling, the Associated Oil company, one of the largest producers in the Huntington Beach field, Saturday took out a permit allowing the company to lay a six-inch oil pipe line from the Wilshire Oil company's well in the new district to the Associated's trunk line two miles away.

The issuance of the permit is regarded by people of Huntington Beach as a certain indication that oil has been found in large quantities at the Wilshire well and that the well will soon be brought in. Four 250-barrel production tanks recently were put in place by the Wilshire company.

Just what the Wilshire well will do is a matter of speculation. Recently, the well blew out and sprayed oil across the road, indicating that formations of the gusher type had been encountered. Production tests failed when the hole bridged over and the company had to pull the oil string and drill out the bridge. Whether the company will try for a deeper formation or try to bring the well in again at a 3000-foot depth is a matter of speculation.

The Superior Oil company was still coring today and proceeding cautiously. It is understood that this well has encountered excellent indications at a slightly shallower depth than the Wilshire showings were found.

The Julian Oil company is also drilling ahead. The Julian work was resumed after six weeks of idleness. The rig was one of the first erected in the new section, but the company failed to do anything except spud in the well to hold the lease.

4 DEEP WELLS TO BE DRILLED AT YORBALINDA

YORBALINDA, July 12.—Stakes for four new wells to be drilled in the Yorba Linda district and much other activity is promised due to recently completed producers.

The Anaheim Union Water company No. 1 well at Yorba Linda Lake, south of Yorba Linda on Lakeview avenue, has proven a big surprise to the oil fraternity. Estimated for the first few days as a 150-barrel well, it has picked up and is now producing 430 barrels with only 90 barrels of water. While pumping some water now, the Standard Oil company will go into the hole within a short time and shut it off. The new Standard well will be one location away from No. 1.

The Union Oil company has started to rig up for J. Newell No. 4, close to the Newell residence. It is just east of the J. Newell No. 5 well, now drilling. The second location is on the Chapman lease and is practically an offset to the Esther Newell deep sand well brought in a week ago, though it is slightly south and across Alta Vista street to the west.

The success of the Chiksan Oil company in bringing in its Robertson well south of the G. and L. Leaso has prompted the St. Helena Petroleum company, which now has wells in that section, to start on the Anderson ranch. The St. Helena well is across the road north from the H. H. Krohn well, now being rigged up.

The California Petroleum corporation had hard luck with its deep well Consolidated No. 11 south of Yorba Linda, has cemented off again and it is hoped that shut off the water. The drill went through the deep sand into bottom water. It will be ready to test in a few days.

The Calpet has had wonderful success deepening the old Krug lease wells, having put the hole down on No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3 and is now deepening No. 4. These are old wells drilled several years ago close to the Richfield school and are deepened from around 2900 feet to 3200 and 3300 feet. No. 3 well, which was making only nine barrels a day, is now pumping 200 barrels since being deepened.

The Chiksan Oil company, which has leases south of Yorba Linda, is considering starting a well but no decision has been reached as yet.

The James E. Nugent Oil company is rigging up and will be ready to spud in this week. This firm has 100 acres under lease just south of Yorba Linda.
